PA NEWC OBSERVES

Do you know that the meat buying habits of the people of New Castle have changed during the past few years? Perhaps not. Most of us pay little attention to the habits of our friends or neighbors unless they conflict with our own. But a local butcher is authority for the meat buying habit statement, and he ought to know. He says it has changed on account of electrical refrigerators. Many people now buy their meat on Saturday for the following week, instead of buying it daily as customary a few years ago.

Those Lawrence county hunters who had taken out licenses with the expectation of being able to hunt antlerless deer for three days during the latter part of the month, are considerably disappointed by the Dauphin county court ruling calling it all off. County Treasurer Joseph Hartland says that quite a number of hunters were preparing for this special shoot. He expects to be able to return the fees paid for the licenses, but has received no word to make re-imbursement as yet.

The latest data from the Pymatuning dam reveals that the water now covers 16,420 acres, making it the largest lake in area in Pennsylvania. In this state are 11,420 acres of the lake, the balance being in Ohio. With a shore line of between 65 and 70 miles the lake is estimated to impound 65,569,000,000 gallons of water. The state has planted 1,350,000 trees around the shore lines and has stocked the lake with millions of fish of various kinds.

There is a law against hitch-hikers standing on the highways and thumbing a motorist, but this doesn't seem to worry the hitch-hikers. All they are worried about is getting a ride. Some of them stand so far out in the highways that motorists must slow up to avoid hitting them. There are some very deserving people who try to thumb rides, and then again, there are some regular thugs. Most motorists are unable to distinguish a good thumb from a bad, so play safe and drive on.

The Pennsylvania milk control commission has just sent investigators into Butler county to investigate reports that some dealers are cutting the price of milk. It might be worse. What if they were skimming the milk or watering it?

It's a good thing Sitting Bull, Geronimo, Tecumseh and Pontiac aren't around to read today's headlines from Europe and Asia, or they would have demanded that the world apologize for having called them savages.

Lawrence county motorists had their first taste of wintry weather of the season, last night and this morning, when snow fell continuously, starting last evening. Fortunately the ground was still warm and the snow kept melting off. It was slippery in some spots, but drivers are generally more cautious with the first snow than they are later on in the season, and there were not so many accidents.

There seem to be more deer hunters around this section than there are bear hunters. Pa Newc has not heard of any local hunters who have shot a bear yet, although there are some who are in the woods after them. Most of the big game hunters are awaiting the opening of the deer season, which starts November 29.

New York City evidently does some civic advertising on the garage collection trucks that cover the city. For some time past new trucks have been going through this city, being driven overland from the factory to New York. On each one of the aluminum colored trucks, a sign is painted: "Keep your sidewalk clean" and "Curb your dog."

Boys and girls were out early this morning to greet the first real snow of the season with their sleds. Quite a number of youngsters were noticed out sled riding several hours before time to start to school.

Although there was a blanket of snow almost two inches thick covering the ground in the spots where it had not melted at 9 o'clock this morning, by actual volume, after the snow had melted, the equivalent was only seven-tenths of an inch, Weather Observer B. F. Johnson states. The snow which

New Castle Lodge No. 69 Has Notable Program On Fiftieth Anniversary

THREE SPEAKERS AT EVENING BANQUET

Class Of 47 Members Is Initiated During Program Of Jubilee In Afternoon

Gloriously crowning New Castle lodge's all day celebration of its 50th anniversary, Elkdom's happy hosts here joined last night in a "golden jubilee dinner" at The Castleton and in a grand ball in the ballrom of the Elks home.

The two evening functions climaxed an observance which in the afternoon saw a group of 47 new and reinstated members initiated into the membership of the local lodge of the national order.

Impressive Event.

Like the initiation ceremonies, the banquet and the ball were impressive. Colorful decorations of purple and white, the Elks colors, brightened the dinner hall and the dance hall.

From nearby points came B. P. O. E. groups to join their brother Elks in their jubilee program.

Three principal speakers, all of whom lauded Lodge No. 69 for its rich history, spoke at the hotel dinner.

Attorney George W. Muse, presiding as the able toastmaster, introduced Robert M. Dale. Oil City, president of the Northwestern District Elks association; Wilbur P. Baird, Greenville, district deputy grand exalted ruler, and the local lodge's exalted ruler, Edmund B. Connelly.

Exalted Ruler Connelly praised all of his committees in his remarks and extended Lodge 69's greetings to the jubilee crowd.

Judge Patterson Is Re-Elected By Official Recount

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 19—The Republicans salvaged a common pleas court judgeship out of the Democratic landslide in the recent election official return board figures established today.

Judge Frank P. Patterson, a Republican and the only Republican to survive in city and county balloting, was re-elected. Democrats won the other three judgeships at stake, turning out sitting Republican candidates.

Another Typhoon Hits Philippines

(International News Service)

MANILA, Nov. 19.—Another typhoon struck in the central Philippine Islands today, leaving an estimated toll of 30 dead and property and crop damage as high as a million dollars.

The gale, second within two weeks, struck the provinces of Iloilo, Leyte and Cebu, paralyzing shipping and disrupting communications.

Elks Celebrate New Castle Lodge's Golden Jubilee

BANQUET OF NEW CASTLE ELKS AT THE CASTLETON, THURSDAY EVENING.

One of the high spots on the Golden Jubilee program of New Castle B. P. O. E. No. 69, in which the fifty years of progress of the lodge here was celebrated Thursday, was the banquet in the evening at The Castleton. Many leading members of the organization from other cities shared the occasion.

Hunt Assassins In Minneapolis

Fear Other Labor Leaders May Be Marked For Death In City

REPORT FIVE ARE MARKED FOR END

(International News Service)

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 19.—Featuring the threat of a union blood purge in the twin cities might too soon become a reality, three law enforcing agencies combined here today in a hunt for the assassins of Patrick J. Corcoran.

As boss of the powerful teamsters joint council, Corcoran belonged to the hierarchy that ruled organized labor in this strongly unionized territory.

Shot down from ambush near his home late Wednesday night, he was believed to have been the first of five marked for the violent end that was predicted for at least one of them by a newspaper columnist last week.

Not Only Intended Victim

Cedric Adams, the newspaperman, told police the intended victim he had mentioned on the word of an under-world tipster, was William Brown, president of the General Drivers union.

Regional Ball Is Lion's Event

Farrell, Butler And New Castle Clubs Enjoy Banquet And Program

Entertainment galore and brief-to-the-point speeches contributed last night to the first semi-annual regional banquet and ball of the Lions' clubs of this Western Pennsylvania region, held in New Wilmington.

The dining hall of the hotel was taken over for the occasion.

Arranged by a committee of the New Castle Lions club headed by Harding H. Thayer, the program was shared by Lions and Ladies of the Lions from Farrell and Butler as well as here. A turkey dinner opened the evening's festivities.

During the dinner hour the crowd of 100 enjoyed the amazing impersonation acts of a Sharon district impersonator, brought to the dinner by the Farrell club. Then a rib-rattling comedy skit, "Recital of the Night School," followed. Numa F.

Holiday Attire For South Side

Streets To Be Decorated In Holiday Festoons And Lights This Season

For the first time the business section of the south side will be festooned for the Yuletide season, it was announced today.

Sometime next week, a corps of P. & O. workmen will commence to decorate East Long avenue, from Moravia to Hamilton streets and from East Reynolds street to the corner of East Long avenue and South Mill street. The decorations will be similar to those used throughout the downtown section during the Christmas season.

The idea was originated by the South Side Board of Trade and is being done under the auspices of the organization and South Side merchants.

Lord Halifax's Talk To Hitler Is Quite Brief

By PIERRE J. HUSS
International News Service Staff Correspondent

BERLIN, Nov. 19—High in the mountains at Chancellor Hitler's Berchtesgaden retreat, Lord Halifax of Britain and the Fuehrer held their much advertised but informal conversation today—but the results at first glance appeared less than anticipated.

The meeting was brief—only 90 minutes—so brief, in fact that diplomatic quarters in Berlin expressed surprise. One diplomat remarked:

"It sounds as if the British expectations for improved Anglo-German relations were whittled down to a courtesy reception."

With foreign minister Baron Konstantin Von Neurath present, Hitler and Britain's Lord president of the council canvassed Europe's political horizon—with the question of Germany's colonial ambitions a major discussion.

Contrary to expectations, however, the talk ended even before lunch, and Lord Halifax left Berchtesgaden shortly after 2 p. m. He will arrive in Berlin tomorrow and confer with Col.-Gen. Hermann Wilhelm Goering, air minister, Premier of Prussia, Reich forest master of the hunt and economic dictator at 11 a. m.

Brevity of Lord Halifax's visit with Hitler was regarded as a definite indication that their talk was confined to generalities.

Orders Roosevelt To Stay In Room

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19—President Roosevelt was advised by the White House physican, Dr. Ross T. McIntire, to remain in his room today and forego seeing callers.

While Dr. McIntire said the slight intestinal trouble the chief executive suffered earlier in the week had cleared, his gums were still sensitive following the extraction of a tooth yesterday.

Mr. Roosevelt cancelled his engagement list and also his scheduled conference with newspaper men.

While the aching tooth confined him to his bed for the last three days he was allowed to get up today.

Safe Is Robbed In Green's Office

MONEY AND LEGAL DOCUMENTS TAKEN

City detectives were searching this morning for yeggs who robbed the safe of Alderman O. H. P. Green at his East Washington street office between 5:30 p. m. and 7:45 p. m. Thursday.

The thieves knocked off the dial, opened the outside safe door and escaped with $135 in cash, legal documents and a .38 calibre revolver. They did not take a high-powered rifle displayed in the window.

The theft was one of the boldest committed here in some time because the safe is located in the front office and no doubt the thieves were seen in the office but no one, apparently, paid attention to them.

Tax Relief Is Promised To Business

Majority Leader Barkley, Of Kentucky Says Congress Will Modify Taxes

SPECIFIC PROMISES MADE BY SENATOR

Action Will Come In Regular Session, He Declares In Interview Today

By EDWARD B. LOCKETT
International News Service Staff Correspondent
(Copyright, 1937)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—While congress milled in seeming confusion, the leader of President Roosevelt's forces in the senate, majority leader Alben W. Barkley of Kentucky, today specifically promised tax relief to American business.

The president asked congress to help business in his message to the special session, and since Monday Barkley and other leaders have lined up their forces, studied the situation, and decided upon their course. Today, through an interview with International News Service, Barkley directed to the business man an outline of what he confidently expects this congress and the regular session starting in January, to accomplish.

Features Of Tax Relief

Taxation relief said Barkley, fresh from White House conferences and meetings with his lieutenants, will come in the regular session with all speed, and its relief features will comprise:

1. Modification—not repeal—of the undistributed profits tax.
2. Modification of the capital gains tax.
3. Modification of the capital stock tax.

Prior to that, in the special ses-

New Trade Pacts Worries Japan

(International News Service)

TOKYO, Nov. 19.—Announcement that the United States and Britain plan a trade agreement spread a pall of gloom today through Japanese commercial and official circles.

Official circles expressed deep interest in the proposed pact, as did the Japanese press, which represented it as an effort to counteract the pressure of the "anti-comintern powers," Japan, Germany and Italy.

Commercial circles declared the agreement will seriously jeopardize Japan's import and export position.

Britain Fears Hong Kong May Be Endangered

EMBASSIES WILL LEAVE NANKING

(BULLETIN)

(International News Service)

SHANGHAI, Nov. 19.—Possibility that Japanese bombing raids in south China might endanger Hong Kong aroused British officials today as three Nipponese columns drove ahead toward Nanking.

British authorities here, at Nanking and at Hong Kong, Britain's vital naval base and crown colony, were alert for trouble as Japanese ships and warplanes launched new attacks to the south in the Canton region.

The activity started when several warships heavily shelled the Boccatigris forts protecting the huge southern port of Canton.

Raid Near Hong Kong

Seven hours later, at 9 a. m., a fleet of Japanese bombing planes raided the Canton-Kowloon railway near the Hong Kong border. The entire civilian population of the border town of Shumchun immediately evacuated as Chinese gunners unleashed a terrific barrage against the attacking planes.

British authorities at Hong Kong were gravely concerned lest the hostilities in the Canton area involve Hong Kong—a development that would unquestionably lead to serious international repercussions.

Increasing the menace to Nanking, Japan's fast moving troops, it was claimed, advanced to a point only five miles from Soochow, key to the entire Chinese 90-mile defense line.

Elated Japanese commanders declared the Chinese counter-attack, aimed at halting the Nipponese

Expect New Moves To Follow Trade Pact With Britain

By KINGSBURY SMITH
International News Service Staff Correspondent

LONDON, Nov. 19.—Important diplomatic moves will follow trade negotiations among the United States, Britain, Canada and other units of the British empire, officials said today.

They indicated direct negotiations between America and separate dominions will proceed parallel and simultaneously to direct negotiations between London and Washington, during the next few months.

Diplomats and Whitehall authorities expressed belief the resulting pacts will prove far more important than an agreement for freer trade. They will form the first step in what is regarded here as a practical interpretation of President Roosevelt's speech at Chicago in which he called for a "quarantine" of aggressor nations, it was said.

New Trade Alliance With Canada Planned

By ROBERT G. NIXON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—Erecting a gigantic economic confederation of the world's Democratic nations against spread of Fascist totalitarianism, the United States today prepared to negotiate a new trade alliance with Canada.

Disclosure that a new reciprocal trade agreement is contemplated with Canada followed by a few hours the momentous announcement that a sweeping commercial accord is in immediate prospect with Great Britain.

The dual trade alliance is regarded in diplomatic circles as being of tremendous political as well as economic significance.

The trade pacts will link the three great English-speaking countries in a commercial arrangement which will control a large percentage of the world's trade. Great Britain is the United States' largest foreign customer, while Canada is the second.

The step evisages the building up of a combination of the English-speaking nations of the world for mutual economic prosperity, opposed to the Fascist policy of a closed economy and unilateral trade arrangements. Prospects for later trade argeements with the other British dominions, Australia, the union of South Africa and New Zealand, it was admitted in administration circles, are bright.

While the trade pacts with Britain and Canada are designed to benefit the countries economically, their deep political portent was seen in the fact this will be the first alliance of any nature entered into by the United States and Britain since the World war.

Quarter Century Safety Anniversary Will Be Observed By Lehigh

Joining with the other cement companies of the United States and Canada, the local plant of the Lehigh Portland Cement Company will observe the 25th anniversary of the safety movement on Wednesday, November 24, it was announced by Superintendent Wesley Davy.

Few industries have done more than the Portland cement industry in the fostering of safety in the plants. It has been a daily concern of both management and men and the New Castle plant has been one of the outstanding plants in its safety record over the 25 years.

Program At Plant

A program has been arranged here which will be held in one of the company buildings. Mr. Davy will be in charge as master of ceremonies, and will also speak. For the official life of the city and county Mayor Charles E. McGrath will speak. Charles H. Schlicher, chairman of the local safety committee will speak for his organization and Theodore Gunnett, president of the cement workers union will also speak.

The program starts at 3:30 o'clock. At 3:45 o'clock an international broadcast will be heard, with Col. H. A. Renninger, director of safety and welfare for the Lehigh company speaking. He is also the past president of the National Safety Council. The broadcast will last until 4:00 o'clock and from 4 to 4:15 the program locally will be resumed

Guests invited thus far are the judges, the county commissioners, mayor, city council, school superintendents and other officials. Joining in the celebration will be the employes of the plant.

The gray goose starts his southern trek, the rabbit's coats are all fleece lined, and seeing this the prophet starts and guesses, predicates, opines, that winter will be plenty tough, the deer will miss their daily lunch, and icy blasts and snowy gusts will hit us, that at least's his hunch. And usually the weather man just grins and goose bone prophets roar, when winter fools them once again, the snow is here, it's forty four.

Relief May Cause Special Session

New Situation Confronts State

SESSION IN 1938 NOW IS PROBABLE

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Nov. 19—Gov. George H. Earle's policy that "no one shall go hungry while I am governor of Pennsylvania" may itself necessitate a special session of the legislature in 1938 to appropriate more money for relief, it appeared today.

With a relief deficit of $26,000,000 admittedly confronting the commonwealth for the biennium, even the unlikely possibility that administrative costs could be cut $1,000,000 per month could not wipe out the entire shortage, figures show.

Administration spokesman openly admitted it was "highly impossible" that "any" reduction in the costs of administering relief and assistance would entirely wipe out the deficit.

Should the governor's "committee of three", after a month's investigation of the activities of the department decide in favor of Karl De Schweinitz and the present policy administered by him, the commonwealth's $132,000,000 appropriation for assistance, barring the possibility of an unforseen boom in private industry, would run out around Dec. 1, 1938.

In the event the committee finds reorganization is in order and that administrative costs can be cut, De Schweinitz will probably resign and a stringent economy program be instituted.

westward drive, had failed after a brief success, in which the Japanese were temporarily stalled.

At the same time, they indicated a Japanese-fostered administration in the Shanghai zone may soon be established. This was further borne out by a Chinese source, who said the Japanese planned to name two friendly Chinese as mayor of Shanghai and commander of the city's garrison.

To Move Embassies

At Nanking, it was expected the United States, British and other embassies would be moved to Hankow today or tomorrow, as soon as transfer of the central Chinese government to the interior is officially announced. Gunboats of the United States Yangtze patrol are ready to transport the American embassy staff and archives.

Nevertheless, all except the Soviet embassy will maintain skeleton staffs at Nanking after the government withdraws.

All Chinese newspapers at the capital, except the Central Daily News, announced they would suspend publication after tomorrow.

Meanwhile, far to the north of Shanghai, it was reported, Chinese forces withdrew from the port of Chefoo after dynamiting and destroying 50 feet of the mole along the waterfront there. Attempts to blow up the rest of the mole proved unsuccessful.

Japanese warships in the Yangtze river blasted huge holes in the left flank of the Chinese defenses, opening a path for the advance of Nippon's steam-roller. In the expectation Nanking will soon fall, the American embassy warned 57 American citizens there, including 16 women and one child, to leave.

In the face of the Japanese sweep, civilians still streamed out of Nanking, leaving the capital relatively deserted. Hundreds of government clerks joined the westward procession, along with thousands of peasants from outlying districts, in a grim, melancholy flight to the west.

TAX RELIEF IS PROMISED TO BUSINESS

sion, Barkley said, the Democrats will wage a vigorous fight to whip through a farm bill, dispose of antilynching and perhaps enact a reorganiaztion bill

The Democratic leader outlined his program in direct quotations. he said:

Extend Assurance

"While those familiar with legislative process realize the impossibility of a tax bill within the next four weeks—the special session, in other words——I feel that every assurance should be extended to business, and that business should accept assurance, that the tax structure shall be modified to aid it.

"The house committee is already dealing with the question, and has for several weeks been considering it. Inasmuch as under the constitution all revenue bills must originate in the house, it is manifest that the senate cannot and ought not to attempt the enactment of a tax bill when it has no right and no reason in so doing.

"This congress will deal with this question with all possible speed, and I think that business should realize that."

First Heavy Snow Reported In State

Traffic On Highways Was Hazardous During Morning Hours

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 19—Western Pennsylvania's first heavy snow fall of the season today created the winter season's first major traffic hazard.

The highways east and west of here were covered with a thin layer of ice. An inch of wet snow covered the city and surroundings, causing many skidding accidents.

Traffic in the mountains to the east and on roads leading to Lake Erie was hardest hit.

State Motor police at Edensburg reported several Pittsburgh bound trucks were held up in the Laurel mountains, waiting until cindering operations lessened the danger of the steep grades.

Roads Dangerous

The Pittsburgh Motor Club reported ice coated the Lake Shore roads and that highways between Detroit and Pittsburgh were almost impassible. All roads to the northwest are in bad condition, the club said, and no cindering was being done in Ohio.

Crews were sent out by the State Highway Department to clear away the snow and sprinkle cinders over the bad spots. But the snow continued to fall throughout Western Pennsylvania, permitting no let up in the menace.

BANQUET; BALL; CONCLUDE ELKS JUBILEE EVENT

uty Baird came to bring greetings of the national order and to outline briefly the aims of the national leader.

During the dinner, Toastmaster Muse read telegrams bearing the regrets of Elks notables who were unable to be present.

They came from the grand exalted ruler himself, Brother Hart; John K. Tener, former governor of Pennsylvania and once a grand exalted ruler of Elkdom; Charles H. Grakelow, a former grand exalted ruler; George J. F. Falkenstein, a McKeesport man who was to have spoken and whose place was taken by the toastmaster, and from John F. Nugent, former head of the Pennsylvania state organization of Elks.

Accords Praise.

District Deputy Baird, in his address, spoke high praise for Lodge 69 and paid personal tribute to Clark H. Buell, the man who directed the jubilee committees as general chairman. The group applauded his mention of Mr. Buell.

Mr. Buell had spoken to the dinner guests a few moments earlier and had told them the jubilee was arranged to mark the local Elks' most significant event—50 years of community service.

Before the dinner Chaplain John C. Williams pronounced the invocation. Singing was led by Stephen N. Griffith.

With the banquet at The Castleton over, the crowd returned to the Elks club for the remainder of the jubilee program. Jack Bruce and his competent committees had arranged special cabaret entertainment in the lodge home basement while upstairs in the clubrooms and the ballroom activity hummed. An orchestra played for the dancers.

Three living charter members of the New Castle lodge received special honors throughout the day. They occupied seats at the speakers' table at the jubilee dinner.

References to Samuel S. Hamilton, John T. Horner and A. Sannie Russell, the three who were present when a group of 40 organized the lodge here on August 31, 1887, brought rounds of applause.

Under the direction of Mr. Bruce and his aides, floor shows were arranged for the entertainment of both the ballroom and cabaret crowds. Many chose, too, to enjoy the facilities of the clubrooms.

Besides the special speakers, leaders who came from out of town points to share in the lodge festivities included Mayor James Bohlender of Franklin, Joseph Reisenman, Jr., Franklin; former District Deputy Hudson Ellis, Beaver Falls; R. D. Rossiter, Ambridge; George Hunter, one-time secretary of the Elks lodge and now a resident of the west; Larry Gent, Franklin, past president of the Northwestern District association. Others arrived later in the evening for the dance.

The wives of two labor leaders said they had received anonymous threats against their husbands and associates while Ald. A. G. Bastis said he had learned from a secret source that beside Brown and Corcoran, the Dunn brothers, Vincent, Grant and Miles, organizers for the drivers' union, made up the death list of five.

Despite this apparently urgent need for haste before others meet Corcoran's fate, police of both Minneapolis and St. Paul together with state investigators remained frankly puzzled at where to begin in their investigation.

Big Reward Offered

Even the promise of an $11,000 reward for the slayers failed to bring any tangible clue to their identities, thirty-six hours after the body of the 45-year-old teamsters' council secretary was found crumpled in the snow.

The description of the killers, dressed alike in dark and non-descript clothes, indicated to detectives they were professionals imported for the job.

Vidal, Jr., was the teacher in the sketch and his merrymaking pupils were Charles Pile, Charles Hudson, Dr. T. J. Fletcher, Clarence Hough and George F. Winter, Jr., all New Castle Lions.

The principal speaker was District Governor Ed. B. Goldsmith, a member of the Mt. Lebanon (Pittsburgh) club. He spoke briefly on "Lionism."

Toastmaster for the evening was Numa F. Vidal, Jr., of the New Castle group, introduced by the evening's chairman, Regional Director Joseph Dockman of Farrell.

A hit feature of the evening proved to be the motion pictures on several of the famed dance bands of the nation. Another was the final elimination in the cigaret-candy selling contest which the club has conducted for its blind newstand sponsor, Victor Wagner. John Walters took top honors from Dr. T. J. Fletcher in the run-off.

Dancing concluded the program. Chairman Thayer had Earl Williams, John Walters, Dr. Burr Rogers and Arthur Meek for his aides in making arrangements for the party.

EXECUTIVE MEETING

The executive committee of the W. C. T. U. held a meeting on Wednesday afternoon, November 17, in the Y. W. C. A. with Mrs. Helen Wilkins, county president, in charge.

Mrs. Jennie Wilson led the devotional service after which the secretary, Miss Peebles, read the minutes of the last executive meeting and a report of the county convention.

Matters pertaining to the years work were discussed. Mrs. Wilkins reported that the picture of Frances Willard to be presented to the new library had arrived.

The loyalty luncheon is to be held in January, the exact date and place to be decided by a committee composed of Mrs. Harriett Coates, Mrs. Preston and Mrs. Sylvia Shaffer.

New workers and presidents were introduced. They were: Mrs. Hook, director of institutes; Mrs. Harriett Coates, director of Christian citizenship; Mrs. Pherson, director of T. L. B.; Mrs. T. A. Preston; Mrs. Young, president of East Brook union; Mrs. Sylvia Shaffer, president of West Side union.

Mrs. Wilkins announced that Omar Fink had been awarded the diamond medal at the last state convention at Greensburg. Mrs. Shaffer was appointed assistant publicity director.

Pallbearers were Mr. Mollenkopf, Mr. Mollenkopf, Mr. Leslie, Mr. Walsh, Mr. McCoy and Mr. Shield. Burial was made in Petersburg cemetery.

Funeral Of Milo Warner.

Friends gathered at the residence on Sheridan avenue Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock for the funeral of the late Milo N. Warner.

Rev. Homer B. Davis of Erie and Rev. Harold A. McCurdy of the Epworth M. E. church were the ministers in charge. Two selections were beautifully sung during the services by Mrs. Chester Reynolds and Mrs. Martha McCreary, entitled "Asleep In Jesus" and "The Old Rugged Cross".

Pallbearers were Charles Warner, Howard Warner, Harold Mark, Thad Egbert, Charles Campbell and Verne Phillips. Interment was made in Graceland cemetery.

Mrs. Catherine Taylor

Mrs. Catherine Wilhert Taylor, aged 83 years, of 111 Terrace avenue, widow of Jonathan Taylor, died at the residence this morning at 1:30 o'clock. She had been ill only a short time.

Mrs. Taylor was born in Greensburg, Westmoreland county, on February 27, 1854. Most of her lifetime was passed in Lawrence county, however where she was highly respected and liked by everyone. Prior to coming to New Castle she had lived in the Moravia community.

Surviving are the following children: Ella, John, Harry, Samuel, Benjamin and Mrs. Ada Strawhecker, eighteen grandchildren and fourteen great grandchildren.

Funeral services will take place at the residence on Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with Rev. T. C. Henderson of Moravia Presbyterian church officiating. Interment will be made in Savannah cemetery.

Mrs. Nora Zurasky.

Mrs. Nora Zurasky, wife of Leo Frank Zurasky, of 1010 Butler avenue, died in the New Castle hospital Thursday evening at 10:20 o'clock, after an illness of three weeks.

Mrs. Zurasky was born in Ireland June 15, 1873 and came to this country at the age of 12. She had been married for 41 years. She was a member of St. Joseph's R. C. church.

Solemn Requiem high mass will be celebrated Monday morning at 9:30 o'clock in St. Joseph's church, the funeral cortege leaving the home at 9 o'clock. Burial will be in St. Joseph's cemetery.

In addition to her husband she is survived by one sister, Miss Kate Welsh, of this city.

Mrs. Ida Wilson

Mrs. Ida M. Wilson, aged 78 years, of Jackson Center, died this morning at 3:20 in the home of her daughter, Mrs. N. D. King, at 415 North Pitt street, Mercer, where she had been staying for a number of months past.

Mrs. Wilson was born in Jackson township, Mercer county, on October 20, 1859, daughter of Mordecai and Jane Pearson Taylor, and she passed her lifetime there. She was married to Aaron Grace Wilson in November, 1884, and was left a widow by his death on April 26, 1906.

She was a member of the Jackson Center M. E. church.

Surviving are one son, George T. Wilson, of 909 West Clayton street, New Castle; one daughter, Mrs. King, of Mercer, and three grandchildren, Howard, Eva and Laura King, of Mercer.

Funeral services will be conducted at the King residence in Mercer at 2:30 p. m. Sunday, November 21, and burial will be in Pleasant Hill cemetery, Jackson Center.

William Herman McConnell

William Herman McConnell, 11-weeks-old son of Herman W. and Ina Tucker McConnell, of Ellwood City, died in the Jameson Memorial hospital at 6:45 p. m. Thursday.

The infant was born in New Castle on September 2. He leaves his parents and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs W. M. Tucker, of New Castle, and Mr. and Mrs. Calvin McConnell, of East Brook.

Funeral services will be conducted at the Tucker residence, 515 West Washington street, Saturday afternoon at 2:30. Interment will be made in Castle View Burial Park.

Woman Is Killed, Three Injured In Crash On Highway

Tragedy Casts Pall Over Happy Honeymoon Trip For Chicago Young Couple

(International News Service)

INDIANA, Pa., Nov. 19.—Tragedy today cast its pall over a happy honeymoon trip that ended on Route 422 two miles from here with one woman dead and three other persons seriously injured.

The dead woman was Mrs. Stella Ziulic, 40, of Chicago, mother of the bride, Mrs. Stella Rakowski, 20, also of Chicago who with her groom, Leo Rakowski, 24, and her aunt, Mrs. Victoria Galkowski, 50, of Jersey City, N. J., was in the hosptial here. All three were suffering possible fractured skulls.

Rakowski and his bride were married early this week in Chicago and were driving the aunt to her home in New Jersey when their car crashed into the rear of a heavily-loaded truck and trailer.

Marriages Change English History

Simpson-Raffray Wedding Recalls Incidents Leading Up To It

(International News Service)

FAIRFIELD, Conn., Nov. 19—Somewhere in New England today for a two-week honeymoon were the man and woman who changed the course of England's history.

Had not Mary Kirk introduced her chum Wallis Warfield to Capt. Ernest Simpson there would have been no Mrs. Simpson to charm the Prince of Wales on the Riviera and had the same Simpson not stood silently aside and permitted his wife to divorce him there would have been no abdication of the British throne by the former prince, then king.

Today Mary Kirk Raffray was Mrs. Ernest Simpson, married quietly at Brooklawn Country club with only a dozen friends in attendance.

Connecticut cooperated by waiving its blood test law and its five day license law through probate Judge Bradford Boardman.

Correct this sentence: "But our teacher says high heels will ruin us," wailed the daughter, "and I don't want to wear them."

The News By Mail, One Year, $5.00.

HE HIT HIM

Lawyer—Then you admit that you struck the plaintiff with malice aforethought?

Defendant (indignantly) — You can't mix me up like that. I've told you twice I hit him with a brick and on purpose. There wasn't no malets or nothin' of the kind about it—just a plain brick like any gentleman would use.

THAT HURT

Jones was wrapped in gloom, and his friend asked the cause.

"It's that fellow Smith," he replied. "He called me a liar."

The friend tried in vain to console him.

MRS. JAY L. REED TO BE HEARD IN RECITAL

Mrs. Jay L. Reed of North Mercer street will be presented in an organ recital in the auditorium of the Pittsburgh Musical Institute, 131 Bellefield avenue, Pittsburgh, on Tuesday evening, November 23, at 8:30 o'clock.

Assisting organists will be Miss Florence A. Kinley and George Tucker of Pittsburgh.

Mrs Reed will play the entire Borowski Sonata No. 1, "Allegro ma non troppo", "Andante" and "Allegro con fuoco".

Mrs. Reed is a pupil of William A. Oetting in organ and John Austin Holland, formerly of New Castle, in piano. Mr. Oetting is directing the recital of next Tuesday night.

Jolly Ten Club

Mrs. J. H. Gwin, of Clenmore boulevard, entertained the Jolly Ten Thursday at a one o'clock luncheon. Covers were laid at the table for nine, with lovely candy turkeys as favors. Mrs. W. H. Smith assisted in serving.

Fancywork and chat occupied the attention of the club during the afternoon.

The next meeting will be on December 2 at the home of Mrs. J. K. Hess, Garfield avenue.

McGill Missionary Society

McGill Missionary society met at the home of Burdeen John. Mrs. Charles Stewart gave a very interesting speech on the home life of the people in northern India. After a short business meeting a delightful lunch was served by the hostess and her assistant, Mrs. Kelley.

The next meeting will be a dinner at the Highland U. P. church. Each member is to bring old clothes, toys, magazines, etc.

EVENING BRIDGE AT FIELD CLUB THURSDAY

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gibson presided as hosts to members of the New Castle Field club Thursday evening, when they assembled to join in one of their winter series of bridge parties.

Both men and women entered into the card competition, with prizes being carried off by Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Kariher, Mrs. P. A. Shoaff and J. B. Matthews. Lunch was served afterwards, bringing the occasion to a close.

The next mixed bridge party will be held on Thanksgiving night, Thursday November 25, the hosts to be announced.

JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB HAS GUEST SPEAKER

Regular meeting for the Junior Woman's club was conducted in the home of Miss Gertrude Chapin on Chapin road Thursday evening, with a good number in attendance.

After the usual business period, the group was favored with an especially interesting talk by Howard A. Butler. He chose for his subject "Birds" relating many fascinating facts pertaining to bird life.

On December 2, Miss Barbara Schulz of Butler avenue, will receive members in her home for a musical program.

YUCATAN CLUB TO BE DINNER GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Love, will be hosts to members of the Yucatan club at a 6:30 o'clock dinner party on Monday evening, in The Castleton Hotel.

CUNNINGHAM-KANTES WEDDING DETAILS

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Kantes, Jr., nee Catherine Cunningham, are honeymooning in Chicago, Ill., and other points of interest, following their wedding which took place on Wednesday morning, November 17, in St. Mary's church. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Cunningham of 312 North Beaver street, and he, a resident of Atlantic avenue, is the son of Stephen Kantes, Sr., of Long avenue.

The event took place at 9 o'clock, with the Rev. Fr. Leo Watterson, officiating in the presence of a large assemblage of friends and relatives of the couple.

The bride was attired in a sapphire blue velvet creation, made floor length with short train patterned with high neckline and long sleeves. Her turban matched, and she carried an arm bouquet of Johanna Hill roses. Miss Mary Louise Chip as maid of honor, wore a gown of burgundy velvet, made similar to that of the bride's, only with short sleeves. Her hat too, turban effect, matched, and she carried a cluster of souvenir roses.

Throughout the exchange of vows, musical selections were contributed by the church organist, Frank S. Gribben, adding much to the impressiveness of the occasion.

A wedding breakfast supplemented the ceremony, served at The Castleton hotel. Places were laid for twenty guests, including members of the immediate families of the young couple, and a few close friends. A reception was held at the Cunningham residence in the evening, when a host of friends and relatives joined in festivities.

The bride is a graduate of the New Castle Hospital Training School for Nurses in the year of '35, where she has been affiliated ever since. The groom, originally from Morgantown, W. Va., is connected with the Chevrolet company here, as a salesman.

Upon their return home, the couple will receive friends in their newly furnished home at 214 Elm street, this city.

Current Events Class

(Additional Society On Page Seven)

TO MARK WEDDING ANNIVERSARY TODAY

Today will mark the 53rd wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Rigby of Wilson avenue. The occasion is being quietly celebrated due to the fact that Mrs. Rigby is confined to her home by illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Rigby have two daughters, Mrs. William Nelson and Mrs. Bernard Callaghan living in New Castle, and two sons, Clark and Joseph Rigby, also living in New Castle.

The couple also has 22 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

MRS. J. GLENN BERRY RECEIVES ART CLUB

An interesting and enjoyable meeting of the Art club, was held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. Glenn Berry, Hazelcroft avenue. A letter from Mrs. John M. Phillips, State Federation President, dealing with several important resolutions recently enacted upon by the State Federation Board, was read by president, Mrs. Irvine A. Balph.

During the business session which folowed, Mrs. John Patterson was named as Art club representative on the Federation of Welfare Committee. Mrs. Thomas I. Elliott, program chairman, presented Mrs. Jessie Nelson Reed later in the afternoon, who entertained with several lovely piano selections.

Mrs. S. D. Pearson, a member of the Art Club gave a group of high lights and impressions of the International Art Exhibit, now being held in Carnegie Art Gallery, Pittsburgh. In addition, Mrs. Pearson displayed large copies of the prize pictures and other in the exhibit adding further to her interesting talk. A general discussion by the group followed, with all taking part.

A display of pictures donated by club members for the Circulating Loan Collection for the Neighborhood House, concluded the afternoon's program.

The Christmas tea will be held December 16, at the home of Mrs. Harry Gormley, 236 Fairfield avenue..

Missionary Society Meeting

Members of the Women's Home Missionary society of the First Methodist church held their regular thank-offering meeting Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Gertrude Mitchell, 236 East Leasure avenue, with thirty present.

Co-hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. E. B. Bartlett, Mrs. C. P. Cloak, Mrs. C. F. Flannery and Mrs. W. A. Myers.

The devotional services were conducted by Mrs. F. H. Neigh and Mrs. R. F. Garvin. In the absence of Mrs. S. M. Rearic, who was to have charge of the program, Mrs. W. A. Hoffmaster presented the program.

Mrs. Roy C. Miller, the president, conducted the business session.

Junior C. D. of A.

Miss Mary Jane McGinty, Garfield avenue, entertained group six of the Junior C. D. of A. last Wednesday evening. Penny bingo was the feature of the evening with many lovely prizes being awarded to the winners. A delicious lunch was served at the conclusion of play.

GRACE MORRISSEY AND ARTHUR CARPENTER WED

Thursday afternoon, November 18, a quiet wedding ceremony of interest took place in the parish of St. Mary's church, when Miss Grace Morrissey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Morrissey of North Lee avenue, became the bride of Arthur H. Carpenter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Carpenter, this city. The Rev. Fr. Leo Watterson, officiated in the presence of the immediate families and a few intimate friends of the couple, at 4:30 o'clock.

For her wedding, the bride selected a Havanna brown woolen ensemble, with brown beaver fur top coat. Her accessories matched and her shoulder corsage was made up of yellow roses and valley lilies. Miss Blanche Guinagh, as her only attendant, was attired in black and silver ensemble, with black seal coat and matching accompaniments. Her shoulder corsage was similar to that of the bride's.

Francis Morrissey, brother of the bride, served as best man.

Supplementing the ceremony, a wedding dinner was served at the Morrissey home, with appointments being carried out in a theme of yellow and white. Twelve were seated at the bridal table, and a tiered wedding cake topped with little images of the bride and groom, formed the centerpiece. A reception followed later in the evening, when many friends and relatives called to extend best wishes to the newlyweds.

This morning, Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter departed on an extended wedding trip to Harrisburg, Washington, D. C., and other places of interest. Upon their return, they will be home to friends, in their newly furnished apartment, 318 East North street.

The bride is a graduate of the New Castle Hospital Training School for Nurses, and since that time, she has been associated with the hospital as a staff nurse. The groom is affiliated with the Keystone Lawrence Transfer company of this city.

Both are well known among a wide circle of friends here, and since the announcement of their engagement, the bride has been feted at a series of parties and showers. She received many lovely gifts, to add to their collection of wedding gifts, to use in their future home.

BRIDE-ELECT GUEST AT BRIDGE-SHOWER

Miss Mariane Mellinger, a bride-elect of November 24, was honored at a miscellaneous shower given in a local tea room on Wednesday evening by Miss Betty Ball, hostess.

Contract bridge was the diversion of the evening with prizes going to Dorothy Blim and Ruth Brenneman. At the conclusion of play, a delicious lunch was served.

Miss Mellinger received many lovely gifts for her new home. She will become the bride of Milton A. Pattison in the Reformed Presbyterian church at four o'clock in the afternoon next Wednesday.

Tong Club

New officers for the coming year were elected at the meeting of the Tong club on Thursday evening in the home of Mrs. Rocco Guido. Mrs. Rose Russo was re-elected president; Mrs. Clara Eifelli, vice president; and Miss Viola Vitale was re-elected secretary and treasurer.

During the meeting Miss Josephine Izzo was presented with a lovely gift in honor of her birthday anniversary. Cards and chat were the main diversions of the evening and the club token was awarded to Viola Vitale. Special guests at the meeting were Mrs. Robert Palace and Mrs. Angeline Rozzi.

The hostess served a delicious ravioli dinner, with Mrs. Palace assisting in the serving.

On December 2 the club will meet at the home of Mrs. John Orrico, 412 East Division street.

Theta-Nu Club

Mrs. Mack Waide proved a charming hostess when she entertained members of the Theta-Nu club at her home on East Long avenue on Thursday evening.

A business session was held and plans were made for the club's annual Yule party. The remainder of the evening was spent in playing bingo and doing embroidery work.

Later the hostess invited the guests to the dining room which was cleverly arranged in keeping with the Thanksgiving season. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess, aided by her daughter, Eleanor, Mrs. Richard John and Mrs. Clifford John.

On December 16, the group will meet at the home of Mrs. Thomas Aiken, 1063 Adams street.

1935 Club

Miss Olive Houk was hostess on Wednesday evening to members of the 1935 club at her home on Wallace avenue. Sewing and chat were the pastimes of the evening with a lunch being served later by the hostess, aided by Mrs. H. E. Emery. Seasonal appointments were carried out.

The next meeting will be December 1 at the home of Mrs. Edward Millison, Wilmington avenue.

Queen Sewing Circle

The annual Christmas party for the Queen Sewing Circle was held Thursday at the home of Mrs. William Crowe on Dewey avenue, dinner being served at noon. Following, the exchange of gifts took place and later, bingo was in play. Mrs. Mary Harvey received the prize.

In two weeks, Mrs. William Back of 519 Sumner avenue, will receive members.

Gathering At Epworth

With Mrs. G. J. Clements presiding the Woman's Home Missionary Society met in the Epworth M. E. church parlors Thursday afternoon for the November program.

Mrs. H G. Voorhees conducted the worship service, Mrs. J. C. McMichaels was in charge of the thank offering program, Mrs. C. S. Hart gave an impressive memorial service for deceased members, and Mrs. H. A. McCurdy conducted a beautiful candlelighting service.

Mrs. Hart, later in the meeting gave a fine report of the conference in Erie November 11 and 12, and also an account of her tour of the mission schools in the West.

The next meeting will be on December 16 in the form of a Christmas party and each member will bring a gift for a child of the Ruth M. Smith home.

James Cherol of Division street, Frank Colo of South Mercer street and J. Mastrangelo of South Mill street have returned home following a hunting trip in Kane.

OLD WAR BILL NOT YET PAID

WITH wars and rumors of wars there is special poignant interest in the case of the "Living Unknown Soldier in France" for whom the courts have finally chosen a name after 22 years. The shell-shocked Poilu was found at Lyons in 1915, his mind a blank. Since then, 300 French families have claimed him as a son or other relative, some perhaps moved more by solicitude than convinced of his kinship. The courts took a hand, and now, after more than two decades, have decided, albeit indefinitely, that he is Octave Montjohn of Sainte Maure.

Instances just as tragic if not quite so well publicized have been noted on this side of the ocean. There are still one or two World War veterans in our own country who periodically visit government and newspaper offices, unsure the names they use as their own, seeking lost families. Veterans' hospitals are full of men whose minds are gone, other men minus limbs and eyes, all in a more grievous condition than the French wanderer.

The World War is now estimated to have cost $190,000,000,000; interruptions to trade, property destruction and incidentals swell the total to $340,000,000,000. America lost 126,000 men; evaluating their lives alone would dwarf the material costs. The idea of such human cannon fodder still enduring pitiable physical and mental torture nineteen years after the Armistice should be a sobering reflection for those who are now attempting to jostle America closer to another war.

TRAFFIC

Every one realizes that urban traffic congestion is pretty bad and that it is growing worse. In the rush hours streets are almost impassable. Cars that go too fast on what we amusingly call the open road roar along city streets at the rate of two blocks in 15 minutes to the accompaniment of a raucous clamor from collective horns as though drivers would blast a path by sheer noise.

Tempers are on edge, nerves are shot, but nothing constructive is done about it. Indeed, investigation has shown that the average motorist is largely indifferent to a situation which Dr. Miller McClintock, director of the Harvard Bureau for Traffic Research, predicts will result in complete stagnation within a few years on the main travel arteries of American cities.

There are about 28,000,000 automobiles in use in the United States and with production increasing annually, the most obvious traffic solution is more streets and more roads. But public finances generally permit of no such costly operations as laying out new streets or widening existing ones. Accordingly the problem is how best to use the facilities that are available.

We could do a lot to accelerate traffic by courageously and intellingently tackling the parking nuisance. Many a city has made a stab now and then at curbing this abuse, but it is all too apparent that no improvement has been made. The situation grows progressively worse. On downtown streets in some cities cars are parked two and sometimes three deep.

Motorists should have an opportunity to park sufficiently long to transact necessary business, but there is no reason why cities should provide storage space for all-day parkers. They inconvenience the public and increase traffic hazards. Parking meters may help eradicate some of this trouble, but a solution of the traffic paralysis might be the elimination of all parking on the more congested downtown street during rush hours.

HAVE SOME COFFEE MR. WALLACE?

There ought to be some interesting information for New Deal agricultural experts in the failure of Brazil's schemes to keep up the price of coffee by governmental fiat. Brazil has now announced that it is giving up all efforts to control the coffee business and that henceforth the industry will have to go out on its own.

It is worth noting that Brazil, almost as far back as our Civil War days, began its bureaucratic experimentation with the coffee industry. Almost every scheme has been tried, including those which the New Dealers now think that they have discovered. First, Brazil bought up a lot of the coffee crop and tried to distribute it abroad. Then it tried to take up the coffee crop from the growers at prices above that fixed by the market. The plans ended in failure and heavy loss for the government. Then efforts were made to control the production of coffee and even to destroy a part of the crop. The result has not been a prosperity of scarcity, but dismal failure. Brazil found that it couldn't control the consumer demand of the world, that the higher the price, the less coffee was consumed, and the more other tropical nations were inclined to go into the coffee business. The collapse of the Brazil coffee schemes is a result

Over in the East Indies they tried once to force up the price of rubber by government regulation. The scheme failed with disastrous loss to all concerned.

It would seem that these alien instances would have some effect on our American agricultural doctors, but this seems too much to hope for. We are going right ahead despite failures here and abroad talking about producing parity income by government fiat, to get prosperity through scarcity, stimulating farm production abroad and at the same time throwing American markets wide open to the alien producers.

Some of these times Americans are going to awaken to the real situation. They have been blinded by the dust of government checks and bounties but even this can't go on forever.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

LECTURERS DISAGREE

Several years ago, while speaking before the Washington State Teachers' convention at Spokane, I urged teachers to try to think of their pupils at school especially in the grades, as good educators of their brothers and sisters too young to go to school. Accordingly I advised that they encourage childen at school to read aloud to the baby brother or sister as young as two years, and to keep on reading to this child even past the time he enters school.

My reason for this advice was to stimulate the older child at school to want to read so as to entertain another person, and to contribute a useful service to the family. Then I pointed out that there hardly is a better way to help the poor reader at school than to lead him to find pleasure at reading to a much younger child. The objective is very real and appealing to this poor reader, and the enterprise affords a natural means for him to practice at reading very simple materials—the very kind that will help him most to improve his own reading. Whereas, he will read such simple materials willingly to the little listeners, he would hesitate to do so as mere self-practice.

Having finished my address I waited to hear the next speaker—Professor Burton of Chicago university. And he told the same group of teachers to warn their pupils against reading to younger children and to warn parents against reading to children of any age. Said Professor Burton "Reading to a child takes away his desire to learn to read to himself." Who shall decide when doctors disagree?"

Same Doctrine Taught

From other speakers I have heard same doctrine, which Burton preached. I find that it is being taught by many reading experts in colleges of education. Many letters coming to me from parents of poor readers say that the teacher tells them never to read to this child at home.

As far as I can figure out, all this propaganda against parents reading to children has sprung from the report of one case of a poor reader, by Professor Gray of Chicago university of a child who had been read to a great deal at home.

Granted that some children generously read to at home, especially after entering school, might prefer being read to to the drudgery of mastering reading techniques himself skillful teaching should easily meet this problem.

Few children were read to at home more than the three children of the writer. Two of them did make slow reading progress the first two years. But they soon thereafter took a rapid spurt, growing to be better than average readers. And they have read for meaning.

CURE FOR COCKY HUSBANDS

YOU THINK you know her through and through.

She's no mystery to you—you've been married to this woman for years.

Well, then, go shopping with her some day, and you'll not be so cocky after that.

You'll tire long before she does. You'll walk for blocks and blocks, up aisles and around counters, and you'll meet a hundred clerks. You'll look at stockings, tablecloths, blouses, dresses, and you'll be asked to give your opinion some 40 or 50 times. You'll give it and apparently she'll pay not the slightest attention to it. She'll use it as a springboard from which to leap to a sensible decision. You'll tag along like a wornout child, trying desperately to keep your patience.

And sometimes during the afternoon, you'll see a strange thing, something you don't understand. . . . Your wife, let us suppose, is trying to decide which of five or six blouses she will buy. She's rejected three. You've advised her to buy all three of the others or to close her eyes and grab one—and she hasn't even heard you speak.

TODAY'S STORYETTE

A benevolent old gentleman, walking along the street at night came upon a befuzzled young man on his hands and knees near a lamppost. He apparently was searching for something he had lost.

The benevolent old gentleman stopped.

"Lost something?,' he asked.

The bleary-eyed young man looked up. "Losh fif'y shents," he replied, whereupon the old gentleman joined in the search, poking about here and there with his cane. After five minutes of futile effort he asked:

"Just where did you lose the 50 cents?"

"Over there," burgled the other pointing to the opposite side of the street.

"Then why don't you look for it over there?" asked the old gentleman from whom much of the benevolence had by this time oozed out.

Good Taste

Reg. U. S. Patent Office

By Francine Markel

Dear Miss Markel: How does one go about dressing and undressing in a Pullman berth? Should I have the porter bring my baggage to my berth or what is the procedure?
INEXPERIENCED.

Answer—Carry an overnight bag in which you should have a night dress, robe, slippers, cosmetics and everything else you will need for overnight use.

On sleeping cars, passengers are supposed to dress and undress in their berths, and a small bag with everything compact will save time and space. It can be kept by your Pullman chair obviating the necessity of having the porter carry your large traveling bag back and forth.

In a train not overly crowded, passengers may dress and undress in the small washrooms; but this is not encouraged since it is unfair for a few passengers to monopolize these rooms, while others must wait tindefinitely for their chance.

Be sure to include a full-length opaque robe and slippers which you will find indispensable for going from your berth to the washroom.

Tomorrow—Return Hospitality for Bridal Shower.

Two Billions For Relief
Force Congress To Face Facts
Labor Question Must Be Settled

By LESLIE EICHEL
Central Press Columnist

RELIEF! TWO BILLION DOLLARS will not be enough!

That is the story—for congress. The most important event in Washington was not the convening of congress in a special session. It was the convening of the United States Conference of Mayors. The mayors spoke no platitudes; they spoke the bitter truth.

And the bitter truth means two billion dollars' relief for nine or eleven or thirteen million jobless. And the bitter truth means that if excess profits' taxes or any other kind of taxes are reduced, income taxes will have to be levied on thousand and thousands of wage earners themselves.

That is the bitter truth neither an administration nor a congress, no matter what political hue, desires to face. And that is a bitter truth that neither Wall Street nor business will face voluntarily.

But if it isn't faced ——?

A MAYOR SPEAKS

"To fail to strive for recovery is treason to democracy, but to fail to so conduct our recovery program as to care for our needy men, women and children in the meantime is treason to humanity."

That was not spoken on the floor of congress—or in some radical meeting. That was spoken at the mayors' conference by a Republican, Mayor Harold H. Burton of Cleveland. (Incidentally, Mayor Burton probably will be Ohio's favorite son for the Republican nomination for president.)

Mayor Burton spoke with great feeling for, as he said, more than 100,000 persons in Cleveland (one-twelfth of the population) require relief. Other mayors spoke similarly.

"Work relief should be continued on a federal basis," Mayor Burton asserted. "This should include the employment on federal projects of all employable relief cases.

"While there might be more decentralization of administration there certainly should be no decentralization of the source of funds for such work relief until adequate new sources are clearly established.

"If we cut off governmental relief to bona fide cases, we will find in Cleveland 100,000 people compelled to choose between starvation on the one hand or lawless search for food on the other.

"To present such a choice is not to promote law and order; it is to foment anarchy."

"SAME OLD CIRCLE"

But it was Mayor Fiorello H. La Guardia of New York, president of the conference, who hit the nail on the head with:

"Not until the question of labor is definitely and satisfactorily settled can we hope to arrive at a point where we can estimate on a minimum permanent relief requirement. We are still struggling along, seemingly blindly, with the same old vicious circle—lack of purchasing power, reduced production; reduced employment; increased relief.

"This conference has repeatedly expressed itself as to the necessity of creating a greater spread of employment and putting that vicious circle into reverse. This, in turn, is translated into increased purchasing power, increased production, increased employment, and decreased relief.

"It has now been accepted, I hope, by all, that the rural sections of our country and the cities are in the same boat . . ."

Another presidential possibility of the Republicans speaking . . . and gaining cheers.

But Mayor La Guardia advocated something that many states dislike, viz., a uniform system of taxation for states, compelled by the federal government. The mayor would like to see state income taxes in every state—and in equal proportion to every other state.

INDUSTRY'S PART

Mayor La Guardia, as perhaps the outstanding presidential possibility, disregarded the shouts of Republicans in congress for tax reductions on corporations and greater "freedom" for Wall Street.

—For the mayor continued, in quite an unorthodox manner for a Republican:

"In establishing the so-called spread by a shorter working day and a shorter working week, it is necessary to give industry fair con-

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

NO OPPORTUNITY NEGLECTED

There are always commercial-minded men in these United States who overlook no bets when there appears to them an opportunity of making a dollar.

Now one of these gentlemen has come forward asking if it is necessary for state governments to sell license plates? Is there any good reason why all license plates should be uniform in color, size and material? Why couldn't the state's government just issue an autoist's license number and require the number be put on a license plate of a specified minimum size and fulfilling the other requirements as to visibility.

This arrangement, the chap says, would give many firms a break in selling plates.

Moreover, with a vivid imagination, he suggests that cities could have special license plates bearing artistic insignia with advertising value. Social organizations, universities, and "what have you" could also have distinctive plates if they so desired.

Oh, well, why not?

DOG DREAMS

Sometimes upon the rug he lies
And startles us with curious cries.
And in delirious canine sleep
O'er fence and hedge appears to leap.
A dog is he and yet he seems
Both vexed or pleased by what he dreams.

I wonder as I watch him there
In sleep pursuing fox or hare
If Bismarck is not that way freed
From this dull life we have him lead.
These dreams that come perhaps supply
The joys he craves which we deny.

With us a prisoner he stays
And every whim of ours obeys.
His food and shelter we provide,
But leash him when he goes outside.
And should a rabbit cross his track
With stern command we'd call him back.

But oft asleep, with baying sounds
Upon the rug away he bounds.
A free dog in his dreams he gains
The happiness that man restains
And in that moment's fleeting space
Enjoys the rapture of the chase.

FRIDAY, NOV. 19.

Once Upon Nov. 19th—Even today when there are persons who believe that the world is flat, and that it was created in its entirety in six days, there probably are persons willing to accept the theory that the Earth is a hollow concentric sphere, with openings at the Poles, and the warm and fertile interior inhabited.

Thousands believe this was so when, 115 years ago today, Capt. John Cleves Symmes, 42, a retired Army officer from Kentucky petitioned Congress for aid in financing an expedition into the interior of the earth to prove it. He intended to take his "wife and her 10 children" along with him he said.

Symmes was sure he would find a vast river pouring out of the Earth's interior near the South Pole. This he planned to name for himself.

Surprisingly, Congress wasn't convinced by Symmes arguments, and he didn't get aid. But the fanfare was responsible for Capt. Charles Wilkes, being sent with a Navy squadron into the southern ocean, to make explorations. Wilkes was cautioned, however, about getting too near to the South pole.

When Wilkes came back, months later, to report the existence of an Antartic Continent, he was accused in a court martial of having fabricated the discovery. It required 68 years for existence of the fourth largest to be confirmed. Meanwhile, Capt. Symme's son Americus Vespucius S., revived the theory and induced many co-believers to petition Congress anew.

On Other Nov. 19th.—1621—Gov. John Bradford of Plymouth colony issued the first Thanksgiving proclamation.

1690—The New York Common Council licensed "Comforters of the Sick" and "Inviters to Funerals" to practice their trade in the City. "Comforters of the Sick" it was explained by the WPA researchers who dug up this information, sat at bedsides, singing hymns and pre-

Duke And Duchess Fail To Make New Social Register

New York Social Barometer Fails To Mention Famous International Couple

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Minus—oh veddy, veddy much minus—any reference to his royal highness, the Duke of Windsor and her grace, the duchess, the New York social register for 1938 was out today pruned of those illustrious international names.

Blue-pencilled also was Capt. Ernest F. Simpson whose marriage yesterday to Mary Kirk Raffray would have been too late to make the edition but, as it turns out, it didn't make any difference because he didn't get in anyway.

The ways of the social register are strange and the fate of the duchess is the perfect example.

As Mrs. Ernest Simpson, she made the pages for several years. When she and Simpson separated, the mysterious laws of social recognition tolerantly carried her along as "Mrs. Warfield Simpson" but when she takes a king from the British throne and as his wife rates as duchess, even though not "her royal highness", the social register drops her with a dull thud that can be heard from Newport to Cannes.

Three Injured In Auto Crash Near Frizzleburg

Mrs. Anna Krieselman, of Cleveland, sustained a laceration of the head and two other Cleveland women, Mrs. Sarah Weintraub and Mrs. Mollie Levart, suffered from shock and bruises when the car driven by the latter's husband, Nathan, of East 154th street, Cleveland, and that of A. G. Rogers, Holliday street, Oil City, were in an accident at Frizzleburg, Route 422, at 6:20 a. m. today.

According to Patrolman Hoke, of the State Motor Police, both machines were operating toward New Castle. Rogers sounded the horn of his car to pass the machine driven by Levart. The latter steered to the side of the highway and his car went onto the berm. In an effort to steer the car again onto the highway his car swerved and it was struck by Rogers' car.

The crash sent Levart's car against a telephone pole and it upset.

RE-DEAL MEMBERS GUESTS THURSDAY

Mrs. Matthew Honkonen of Audley avenue, was a pleasing hostess to members of the Re-Deal club Thursday evening, when she received them for their bi-weekly social.

Cards filled in the hours, with Mrs. Fred Williams, Jr., and Miss Marguerite Mullen winning the honor score prizes. Lunch was a later pleasure, the small tables being re-arranged in appointments suggestive of the season. In serving, the hostess was aided by Mrs. Claude Crill.

Tuesday, December 7, the club will meet with Miss Dorothy Kay on Hazelcroft avenue.

Century Club

Members of the Century club met in the home of Mrs. Jesse Colaluca, Cascade street, for their regular meeting on Thursday evening.

Bingo, games and social chat were enjoyed by the group with prizes being awarded to Mrs. James Fenati, Mrs. Joseph Pannella and Miss Clara Prioletti. Mrs. Emma McFarland was taken into the club as a new member and Mrs. Carmen Morelli was a special guest.

A delicious lunch was served by the hostess with Mrs. C. Morelli assisting. Appointments were carried out in the Thanksgiving theme.

A theatre and dinner party will be held on Thursday, December 2, with Mrs. James Fenati as hostess.

SAYMORE CLUB HAS PARTY FOR HUSBANDS

Members of the Saymore club, entertained at a special Thanksgiving dinner party on Thursday evening at the Kauffman hotel in Zelienople having as special guests, their husbands.

Following the serving of the menu the group motored to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Irwin in Ellwood City where the balance of the leisure hours were spent informally. Cards and other pastimes featured.

The next meeting will be held at the residence of Mrs. Findley Boyd, on Maryland avenue December 2. At this session, plans will be completed for their Christmas party.

Queen Esther Auxiliary

The regular meeting of the Queen Esther Auxiliary of the First M. E. church was held on Tuesday evening after the church service.

Devotionals were in charge of Miss Ida Wolverton.

Because of the regular meeting for December coming so close to Christmas, the meeting will be held one week earlier, December 14, with the group of Mrs. Ralph Shiner in charge. All Christmas plans will be in the hands of this committee.

The Auxiliary members were honored in being the first to hear a girls' chorus from the city schools, in charge of Miss Marjorie Rhodes.

Refreshments were served after the business meeting by the group in charge of Mrs. W. W. Shaddick.

paring patients for death for a fee. "Inviters to Funerals" took over after patients died, going from house to house to recite the virtues of the diseased and inviting friends and relatives to the funeral. For an extra fee they led in the weeping at the services.

1831—James Abram Garfield was born. He was 49 and a disciple of Christ minister, he was Representative in Congress, senator-elect and President-elect, all within the same year. He didn't receive a vote on the first ballot and only one on the second ballot in the Republican convention in which he was nominated.

1863—Abraham Lincoln delivered his celebrated Gettysburg speech at the dedication of a cemetery on the battlefield where in July Confederate chances of victory had reached high tide. Though it is the most famous speech in American history, it had no effect whatever upon history compared to addresses by James Otis, Patrick Henry, Benjamin Franklin and many others. By the way, the nearest important daily, Harrisburg Patriot, the day after the Gettysburg ceremonies said: "We pass over the silly remarks of the president; for the credit of the nation we are willing that the veil of oblivion shall be dropped over them and that they shall be no more repeated or thought of."

All Of Us

You're still talking and the salesgirl is still talking. People are passing up and down the aisle. Another sales girl is shouting for the head of the department to come and authorize a check. A baby is screaming. A fire engine snarls by, outside.

But the woman you think you know doesn't hear a thing. She's gone into a trance. Her eyes are fixed. Shes concentrating on something you cannot see. It's a mysterious moment. She's "deciding." . . . Something's racing through her mind. What she is thinking you'll never know. Is she wondering how it will wear? Whether the colors are fast? How it will go with other clothes? Whether its worth the money? Or whfether she can afford it? Or whether it's the right style for her? Or whether she can alter it at home so it will be just right?

How do you know? How can ANY man understand what is going through a woman's mind as she stands there at the counter, in a deep trance, in that mysterious moment—just before she comes out of her dream and says: "I'll take this!"

So you think you know "just how a woman's mind works?" All right! Go shopping with her and see how little you really know.

sideration. But industry should be willing to co-operate in this legislation (wages-hours), instead of opposing and fighting it blindly.

"Eventually it will result in reduced taxes by reason of reduced appropriations for relief. It might take some time to reach this point."

A NEW SUGGESTION

In the meantime, Mayor La Guardia puts forth this proposal:

"In the meantime I suggest a recommendation to congress to consider the advisability of providing, during the initial and adjustment period, some tax credit to industry that will adjust itself to shorter hours and a shorter week, thereby increasing the number of employes. This may well be worked out on the basis of percentage of employment increase.

"We hear a great deal these days about the troubles of industry. But, unless we establish purchasing power in this country, industry will have no market. It will be conceded that what business in this country requires is stability. On the other hand, what labor requires is security. And if we have security for one we can have stability for the other . . .

"We hear a great deal now about so-called hard-headed financiers The trouble is that they are not hard-headed financiers . . . They knew more about the design of a stock certificate than they knew about sound finances, which caused most of our troubles.

"I welcome the suggestions of hard-headed financiers, but to date I have not heard or seen any constructive or helpful suggestions. If there ever was a time when this country required co-operation among all of its people in the face of a great emergency, it is this very moment."

BOY SCOUT Activities

TROOP 12 MEETING

Troop 12 of the Second U. P. church held a regular meeting in the church this week. Meeting opened with a regular ceremony under the direction of Scouts McCormick, Kiaser, Szamrey and F. Senko.

Telegraph sets were made ready for use and signalling practiced during the meeting. Games of various types were also enjoyed. The Hawk patrol was formed and Scout McCormick named as leader.

The meeting was in charge of Scoutmaster Ray N. Zeigler, and came to a close with a few announcements and usual ceremony and sounding of "Taps".

Scribe, John Senko.

Percy 'Angel Face" Geary Surprised In Shack, Offers No Resistance

(International News Service)

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Nov. 19.—John J. Oley, Harold "Red" Crowley and Percy "Angel Face" Geary are back in the clutches of the law once again.

Geary's capture was devoid of any excitement. A gas station attendant tipped off the police that he believed the escaped O'Connell kidnaper was the man who asked him for a place to sleep and was directed to a small shed near the station.

Geary didn't even have a gun with him when three policemen burst into the shack yesterday and captured the escaped man without a struggle.

His two companions in the sensational kidnaping and escape were reposing back in the Albany county jail today. They surrendered to the police on Wednesday.

It was indicated that the trio would be placed in a federal prison, probably famous Alcatraz.

Program Tonight At Union High

Tonight parents of the students of Union township high school and residents in the vicinity of the school, will wend their way to the school auditorium, where the senior class of the school will present its annual program.

During the program tonight, "Madam Olga Raskova, famous Russian fortune teller and handwriting reader," will make an appearance and entertain those present.

Farmers Assist Stricken Friend

North Beaver Township Farmers Harvest Corn Crop Of C. H. McChesney

True to their tradition of helpfulness, a group of friends and neighbors gathered at the farm of C. H. McChesney, of Big Beaver township, on November 16, to aid in harvesting his corn crop.

The project was sponsored by the Big Beaver grange, and the group gave a good account of itself by husking almost six acres of corn before evening.

Mr. McChesney fell and injured his foot on October 2, and has been unable to be about since then.

Those who participated in the friendly act were: Aubrey Reno, Delbert Reno, H. E. Householder, R. B. Jackson, Herbert Leslie, Chester Leslie, Tony Norge, Roy Long, Wendell Walker, George Walker, John Bronson, Dale McHattie, William Buchanan, R. S. McAnlis, Charles McCullough, Melvin Gilliland, Fred Booher, Stanley Boren, J. H. Wilson, George McChesney and F. M. Davis.

Noted Opera Will Be Presented Here

Two Local Residents Will Appear In Presentation Thursday, Dec. 2

Two local persons will appear in the opera, "Haensel and Gretel", to be presented in the Benjamin Franklin junior high school Thursday afternoon, December 2, under the auspices of the Lawrence County Council Parent-Teacher associations, it was announced today.

Tom Williams will play the part of the father. He is a local resident. Marion Felee, who sings the part of Haensel, is Mrs. Tom Williams in private life. Alma Milstead of Texas is a close friend of Miss Jessie Mockel of this city. Miss Milstead is a protege of the well known Edwin McArthur, noted accompanist. Miss Milstead was a member of the Broadway Tabernacle choir for many years.

The opera is the second of a series of presentations by the local organization. The purpose of the theatrical productions is to teach children to appreciate higher types of education.

Two Main Rubber Plants Closed By Strike At Akron

(International News Service)

AKRON, O., Nov. 19.—The two main plants of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co., employers of more than 12,000 were thrown into idleness today by a strike which started with a series of sitdowns.

A company spokesman reported that 3,500 workers remained in the plant, idle at their stations, at 9 a. m. today.

Note to hunters: If that deer over there is smoking a pipe, it is against the law to shoot it.

FINDS HIS WORK MUCH EASIER SINCE BACKACHE IS RELIEVED

New Castle Paper Hanger Was So Nervous He Was Afraid Of Falling From Platform. Praises Vendol For Splendid Action On Bowels And Kidneys.

Mr. R. E. McGaffic, a native of New Castle and an experienced paperhanger, living at 108 E. Laurel Ave., is one of the latest prominent people from this locality to publicly endorse Vendol, the excellent formula of good old Roots and Herbs with valuable Alkalines which has done so much good for weak, suffering people everywhere. He says:

"I had such an aching pain in my back that my work became hard to do and it was only by the greatest effort that I kept going.

"My nerves were unstrung and I had such sudden dizzy spells that I was afraid of falling off my platform. Seemed as if I felt headachy and dizzy all of the time.

"I had a hard time digesting my food and the gas would bloat me up like a balloon. I slept very poorly and began losing weight.

"Vendol brought about a complete change in my condition due to fine way it moved my bowels and its nice diuretic action on my kidneys. Aches, pains, dizzy spells, indigestion were relieved, I gained weight, and soon I was going about my work with my old pep and energy. I advise anyone suffering as I did, not to wait but to begin taking Vendol at once."

If you are weak, run-down and suffering from gas on the stomach, sour belchings, spots before the eyes, bilious feeling, rheumatic aches and pains, headaches, nervousness, night risings or any of the many other ailments caused by constipation or sluggish kidneys, the best thing you can do is take Vendol as so many others right here in New Castle have done, and soon you, too, will get prompt, enduring relief.

The Vendol Man is daily at New Castle Drug Co., 35 E. Washington St., where he will gladly explain to you just how Vendol will benefit you personally. Vendol is also sold and recommended by New Castle Drug at 24 N. Mill St., Schweitzer's Phcy., Ellwood City, and by all other leading druggists everywhere.

Remainder Of 'Third Degree' Prosecutions May Be Dropped

Gunderman Given Light Sentence

One Year In Jail Is Decree Of Court—Prisoner Already Eligible For Parole

NINE DEFENDANTS STILL TO BE TRIED

(International News Service)

SOMERSET, Pa., Nov. 19.—Prosecution of the remaining nine defendants in Fayette county's sensational "third degree" cases will be dropped, it was anticipated in court circles today, as a resuult of the action of Justice George W. Maxey of the State supreme court in virtually throwing open the jail doors for State Trooper Stacey Gunderman, the only defendant thus far convicted.

Gunderman, convicted of second degree murder as a result of what the prosecution labeled a fatal "third degree" questioning of Frank C. Monaghan, 64, Uniontown hotelkeeper, was sentenced to a year less one day in the Somerset county jail by Judge Maxey late yesterday afternoon.

Eligible For Parole

Judge Maxey ordered that the sentence be dated from February 25 last, the date of Gunderman's conviction. Since he has already thus been in jail for more than half his sentence of less than one year, Gunderman immediately became eligible for parole. In addition, Judge Maxey specified that he should not be deprived of his citizenship.

Nine defendants yet remained to be tried, former State Trooper Anthony Sanute and District Attorney James A. Reilly having been acquitted. Prosecution of the remaining defendants by a change of venue rests with District Attorney Andrew T. Park of Allegheny county who was expected to hearken to pleas of Fayette county officials to discontinue the cases and save the taxpayers further expense.

Simpson-Raffray Wedding Ceremony Occurs Thursday

Divorced Husband Of Duchess Of Windsor And Divorcee Take Vows

(International News Service)

FAIRFIELD, Conn., Nov. 19—Captain Ernest A. Simpson, 41, divorced husband of Wallis Warfield Simpson, now Duchess of Windsor, was married here Thursday to Mrs. Mary Kirk Raffray, 41, of New York. The bride secured a divorce from her stockbroker husband at Reno last week.

The marriage ceremony was performed at the Brooklawn Country club here by Attorney Ned E. Osterman, acting in his capacity as justice of the peace.

The couple motored here with friends from New York City and secured a marriage license from the town clerk. Probate Judge Bradford Boardman waived the five-day marriage license law and the required blood test to permit the ceremony.

Following the nuptials the couple barricaded themselves with friends in the clubhouse to keep photographers and reporters out.

It was reported they were the guests of Thilo C. Calhoun of Fairfield.

It's so irritating not to be able to see Charles Butterworth on the radio. You keep wondering what the audience is laughing at.

Noted Here And There In Other Newspapers

A University of Washington freshman, listing his activities for the student yearbook, said he belonged to: "flat feet, eachache and appendicitis once." He apparently had mistaken "affiliations" for "afflictions".

Senator Harry Byrd of Virginia criticizes a rural resettlement housing project in his state so violently that some drastic economies were made. Scheduled plumbing installations were abandoned in favor of small houses to the rear. The tenants now call these structures "Byrd houses".

Policeman Clarence Johnson called an ambulance as Frank Trommer, Jr., lurched from the wreckage of an automobile and a truck at a Philadelphia intersection, his hair, face and clothes streaming blood red. Trommer protested he was unhurt, pointed disgustedly into the wreckage. Johnson looked and saw—shattered catsup bottles.

Dr. Allan R. Dafoe says he believes one or two of the quintuplets "have a little doubt" about Santa Claus, because last Christmas they pulled off his whiskers and thought they recognized him. The quints, incidentally, has a half million dollars in liquid assets. When they get old enough to understand what that means, they will have no doubts about there being a Santa Claus.

Male students at Muhlenberg college, Allentown, where there are only a few girls, need never again spend prom nights dolefully wishing they had "a date". For 35 cents they may enroll in a "date bureau" where girls of all types and sizes are recorded, most of them being students from the nearby Cedar Crest College for Women.

Operators of Buffalo, N. Y., smoke shops report that women, in rapidly increasing numbers, are taking to pipe smoking. It even is getting popular among co-eds. "I got the surprise of my life," said one shop owner, "when a college girl purchased a small pipe, calmly filled it with mild tobacco, inhaled deeply and said 'swell'."

Last Week Night Service Tonight

Evangelistic Meetings At First Baptist Church Will Close Sunday

By request, Dr. J. W. Hoyt preached last night at the First Baptist church in the series of meeting now in progress on the question, "Will Jesus Come Again." After surveying the various views that are held with reference to the second coming of Christ he asserted that the question of fact is bound up with that of the credibility of the Bible. Tonight will be the last week night service in the series. It will be observed as Sunday school night. The combined choirs of the church will have supper together at 6 o'clock. There will be no service on Saturday night. Sunday will be the closing day of the meetings.

AROUND CITY HALL

Council made it obvious Thursday the city will not spend any large amount of money for the repair of Cascade street until a draining system is installed. Approximately $100,000 was expended there without preparations having been made to carry off the water. According to the information submitted yesterday Cascade street is not in good condition.

No difference how many times a police official warns the public to not cash personal checks for strangers the public fails to heed the tip. Almost daily someone complains to the police of a check doing a rubber ball act. Sometimes the culprit is caught. Sometimes he is not.

It will not be be long until council commences compilation of the city government appropriations for 1938. Under a provision of the new law, concerning publics, it must be placed for public inspection for 20 days before the appropriation ordinance and tax ordinance are adopted.

YES, INDEED!

"Today's my wife's birthday," said the manager to his assistant. "I want her to be very happy when I go home this evening. Can you suggest anything?"

"Yes, sir; I'd suggest you remove that lipstick from your ear."

WASHINGTON AT A GLANCE

Miss President On Opening Day

Capital Believes Absence At Opening Of Congress An Error

MAY BE MERELY STRATEGIC MOVE

Central Press
Washington Bureau
602 Times-Herald Bldg.

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Columnist.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—President Roosevelt seems to me to have made a great mistake in not delivering, in person, his message to congress at the opening of the lawmakers' current extra session.

It was read to the legislators by Clerk A. E. Chaffee of the house of representatives.

Reading Clerk Chaffee is a competent elocutionist. He did a good job in his way. He enunciated clearly, was duly respectful of all punctuation marks, but it was obvious that all he was doing was to "follow copy". There was not any inspiration in his performance.

PERSONALITY LACKING

After the ceremony was over the first person I asked, "What did you think of it?" was an ardent New Dealer, a prominent member of the "little cabinet"—that is to say, a first assistant secretary.

"The words were all right," he answered, in a disappointed tone, "but the presidential voice was lacking."

That was it. Congress (and, I believe, the whole country, over the radio) had been waiting breathlessly to be spell-bound by that message. As delivered it fell as an anti-climax.

And it did not go out over the radio.

NON-APPEARANCE PUZZLE

I have talked with few New Dealers (let alone "antis") who deny that the message dealt in much but generalities. Broadly speaking, it was sound. Even the "antis" admit that. But did it recommend anything definite? The New Dealers themselves do not contend that it did so.

If "F. D." had done his own orating I have no doubt that his remarks would have been accepted, except by cavillers, as highly constructive.

Not, however, as expressed at second hand by Reading Clerk Chaffee.

Why the president did not appear in person puzzles me—and many other folk. Possibly he underestimates the potency of his individual personality. Ordinarily one hardly would suppose so; he always has appeared to be pretty confident of himself. Still, it is difficult to guess otherwise. Or why did he make such an error of judgment at so critical a juncture?

STRADDLES

Maybe, at that, he calculates his policy.

He has been known as pretty ultra-liberal—so much so that business is uneasy and we have had a recession.

Some concessions to business had to be made.

And yet, if concessions were made to business, there was the risk that labor and agriculture would be antagonized.

The presidential message had to straddle.

It was easier for the White House to straddle, by way of Reading Clerk Chaffee, than to straddle directly.

A speech by a leader like Franklin D. Roosevelt needs to be a "ringing speech", but it doesn't have to ring so stridently through the medium of a house of representatives reading clerk.

BUT A MASTERLY STRADDLE

Anyway, the message has been somewhat reassuring to business.

At the same time, labor and agriculture have nothing to complain about.

It was a masterly straddle.

And I do not mean to charge that a straddle is bad statesmanship just now. If it turns an economic decline into an improvement, it is beneficent.

The fact remains that that message was a straddle.

If a president has to straddle, it is more dignified for him to do it by way of the reading clerk of the house of representatives than for him to do it in person.

STRADDLING NECESSARY

I presume it is disrespectful to refer to the president as straddling.

Nevertheless, it is necessary.

He has interests that, for the welfare of all concerned, he HAS to straddle.

I cannot talk of them all in one story. Let me have an additional article.

PIE FOR BREAKFAST

A traveling salesman stopped at a small Vermont hotel for breakfast. The waitress asked him what he'd like for his breakfast.

"Have you cooked breakfast foods?" he inquired.

"Yet, indeed."

"What kinds have you?"

Paul Wallace Is Chosen President At Edenburg Meet

Annual Convention Of Mt. Jackson District Sabbath Schools Thursday

Paul Wallace of R. D. 8 Mahonington was elected president of Mt. Jackson district, Lawrence County Sabbath School association, Thursday, at the annual convention in the Edenburg M. E. church. Other officers are:

Vice president, Howard Butler; secretary, Mrs. Nellie Hofmeister; treasurer, Guy Fullerton; children's department, Miss Frances Fullerton; home department, Mrs. Bertha Bonnet of Edenburg; teachers training, R. R. Throop; temperance, Rev. E. A. Shoemaker; adult division, Mrs. H. A. Butler; young people's, Rev. Roy Woodburn; missions, F. D. Coates; administrative, P. W. Griffin; parent training, Rev. A. J. Koonce, and religious training, Rev. W. J. Engle.

These officers were installed by the county president, Robert M. Strickler, Jr., at the evening session. Paul Wallace, who was last year's vice president, takes the place of C. W. Stewart, who presided as president during the afternoon session yesterday, later turning the gavel over to his successor.

During the afternoon music was directed by Prof. J. H. Martin; the devotional service was in charge of Rev. A. A. Swanson, host pastor; Mrs. Donald King and Miss Jean Brewster gave reports of the state convention; remarks were made by County President Strickler, also by Mrs. A. B. Street, the county children's division superintendent, and D. S. Williams. Rev. W. J. Engle, Rev. E. A. Shoemaker and Rev. George Neill took part in the program.

In the evening devotions were led by Rev. Ray Woodburn; a solo was given by D. S. Williams and a mixed quartet composed of Prof. J. H. Martin, I. M. Hoffmaster, Mrs. Daisy Kerr and Mrs. Charles Henderson, all of the Mt. Jackson district; ladies of the Edenburg church were given a hearty vote of thanks for the splendid meal they served delegates; the installation of officers took place; the principal address was delivered by Rev. M. M. Pearce, D. D., president of Geneva college, and the closing prayer was offered by Rev. Andrew Koonce.

The next convention will take place at the Mt. Jackson U. P. church.

Crusade In Progress At Church Of Christ

Evangelist A. E. Wickham Of Steubenville, O., Being Heard Nightly

The crusade against sin is in progress at the Church of Christ, 6 Smithfield street. At this evening's service at 7:30 o'clock, Evangelist A. E. Wickham of Steubenville, O., will speak on the subject, "Heaven and Hell".

Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock the evangelist will speak on the subject "Were Our Ancestors Apes?". This will also deal with the question, "Are we related to beasts?", and "What kind of evolution is right?".

Mr. Wickham and William Jennings Bryan traveled together and fought this doctrine. Mr. Wickham is a diligent student and a fluent speaker.

Two of the Edenburg viaduct cases to be heard were continued yesterday to a date to be set by the Public Service Commission. They were those of Alice and James Reeble, and Gertrude Medine. The Reeble case is for alleged damage to a seven-room house. The Medine case is for the destruction of two houses and a part of the land on which they stood. Some testimony was taken in this case at a former hearing.

Welfare Director Edwin Reed reports that there are now 306 cases of outside relief and 104 cases in the county home. There has been some increase in the outside relief cases of late, but not much. The county only takes care of those who are unable to work. Those who have been thrown out of work recently, and who are in need of help are taken care of by the Emergency Relief. The number of cases in the county home is somewhat smaller than at this time last year, due partly to the fact that some of those who were in the home have received pensions and are able to live outside the home. It is expected, however, that there will be an increase in the number at the home within a short time.

Sheriff Edward D. Pritchard says that rabbits still appear to be plentiful, despite the hundreds of hunters who have been out since the opening of the season. He and Robert McCullough were up in Mercer county yesterday and both succeeded in getting their quota for the day. As soon as the remaining rabbits saw this they began taunting Pritchard and McCullough by standing on their hind legs and thumbing the hunters.

Where marriage licenses applications are made and the couple for any reason fail to have the license issued to them, it is necessary to make a personal visit to the office to have the application cancelled, according to Prothonotary John A. Edgar. It will not do for one of the parties to telephone in that they do not want the license. The application stands on the books indefinitely and the license can be issued months afterwards without a re-application. After the license is issued, it is a different matter. If it is not used within sixty days from the time it is issued it becomes null and void, and it is necessary for the couple to make another application if they desire to be married after the expiration of sixty days.

Two examiners from the Pittsburgh Naturalization department are here for the purpose of taking testimony of applicants for naturalization who arrived here previous to 1906, and who do not have definite information as to their arrival. The testimony is for the purpose of establishing their eligibility to apply for citizen papers.

Coroner Orville Potter was at the court house yesterday shaking hands with county officials, preparatory to being welcomed into their ranks, when he assumes the duties of register and recorder on January 1. Coroner Potter will resign his present office as well as his other duties and devote his entire time to his work as register and recorder.

Regarding the proposed Edenburg-Hillsville road, the county commissioners say that the state highway department has not yet furnished them with certain data which they require in their negotiations with the limestone companies involved. The limestone companies want to know exactly where the lines of the proposed road are to be. The commissioners have a map furnished by the department, but it is not specific enough. Requests have been made for the desired data but it has not yet been furnished. The county has signified its willingness to assume the damages to land, but has underpasses which the limestone companies desires. The bridge and these underpasses would constitute a greater expense than the commissioners feel the county should assume. However, they will confer with the limestone companies as soon as the data which they want is furnished to them.

PROPER APPLE STORAGE IS VITALLY IMPORTANT

Proper control of temperature, ventilation, and humidity are the three most important factors in the storage of apples.

With the common (unrefrigerated) storage, the problem of temperature control is generally the most difficult of the three, especially during the early part of the storage season. The rate of respiration of the fruit, and consequently its storage life, is limited by temperature. An increase of 18 degrees Fahrenheit steps up the rate of respiration two to three times and thus reduces the storage life of the fruit by one-half to two-thirds.

However, one should not conclude that the lowest possible temperature which will not freeze the fruit is therefore the best for storage. While the apple may not actually freeze even at 27 or 28 degrees Fahrenheit, still the best quality will not be attained when such low temperatures are maintained in storage.

Experiments indicate that well-sprayed, carefully handled apples picked at the proper degree of maturity keep better at 35-36 degrees than at 31-32 degrees, the temperature range which has been considered ideal for apple storage. Better flavor and more attractive color are developed at the higher temperature, and the storage period of the fruit is not seriously reduced, provided fruit is stored immediately after harvesting.

However, with varieties which are subject to storage scald and not packed with oiled paper, or with carelessly handled fruit, a temperature of 31-32 degrees Fahrenheit should still be used because this will retart the scald and rot which might otherwise develop.

Proper humidity in the storage room prevents the apples from wilting. This is important with all varieties, but is especially important with Golden Delicious, Grimes, the russet varieties, and other varieties which have become russeted by spray injury. While 85 per cent relative humidity is sufficient for a storage temperature of 31-32 degrees, with the higher temperatures usually maintained in common storages without refrigeration a relative humidity of 90 per cent is preferable. The average grower who does not have the necessary equipment for determining humidity should frequently examine his fruit for signs of wilting. If shriveling is noticed, moisture should be supplied by frequently sprinkling the floor and walls.

Finally, ventilation should receive attention in both the common and cold storage. The apple is a living organism which breathes somewhat like an animal, and a supply of fresh air is essential to its good health. While the cold storage may operate satisfactorily with ventilation two or three times a week, continuous ventilation should be the rule with the common storage up to the time that outside temperatures become cold enough to make it necessary to close the doors.

MODELS SHOW HOW TO REDUCE SOIL EROSION

Farm models can be used to show how to control soil erosion.

This was proved at the annual farmers' meeting at the St. Francis Industrial School in Edington recently. Frank G. Bamer, extension agronomist of the Pennsylvania State College, exhibited two farm models.

One showed how farms are likely to wash under ordinary practices. The other showed how the same farm could be laid out in contoured strips. Next to each cultivated strip would come a strip of sod or winter grain which would largely check the run-off water and soil loss from sheet erosion and gullying.

These models showed more clearly and simply than could be explained in words how to do the work. Experience has proved that it is easier to learn by seeing than by hearing.

Stopping existing gullies was illustrated by models showing the construction of dams of sod bags, stones, wire, brush, and lumber. Other models showed the proper method of filling gullies with brush or corn fodder.

Models are especially satisfactory in illustrating methods and practices at all-day meetings where farmers have time to study them, visualize the application to their own farms, and ask questions of the specialist in charge.

More than 100 farmers inspected the exhibit at the St. Francis school. Judging from their interest, questions, and conversation, many obtained a clearer idea of how to attack their own soil erosion problems.

HORSE PULLING CONTESTS ATTRACT MUCH ATTENTION

Twelve horse pulling contests in nine Pennsylvania counties were witnessed by more than 30,000 spectators in August and September this year.

Spectacular in nature, the contests also demonstrate many important points about horsemanship and equipment. The spectators want to know whether size is a factor, other things being equal. They want to learn the value of training and the value of properly fitted harness, collars, and hames. In horsemanship the training of the team and the man back of the team are as important as the team.

A contest of strength and skill always attracts attention. In the pulling demonstration the draft horses supply the strength while teams and drivers exhibit great skill in starting and handling loads.

Men and women watching a pulling contest away in the direction the team is pulling. They stand breathless in the last few seconds as the horses seem to be on the brink of failure. The sigh of relief when a team succeeds and the applause which follows are expressions of the intense interest.

The pulling contests were started purely as a scientific study of horses and mules. Tests were run for six months during which time horses and mules hauled loads 20 miles each day over gravel roads. These loads ran as high as 20 tons part of the time.

In conjunction with these tests it was decided to hold short period tests to determine how big a load horses and mules could pull in an emergency and how many horse power they could exert. Agricultural engineers invented the dynamometer.

The engineers through the limit was about 10 horse power per pair. The tests showed that any good pair could exert 20 horse power and many good pairs have exerted from 25 to 30 horse power for short periods.

Measurements have been taken and the characteristics of great pulling pairs studied to determine what points are common to the horses and mules possessing greatest draft power. Out of these studies it has been determined that weight, great heart girth, correctly set feet and legs, and massive muscling are common characteristics which can be seen.

Of equal importance is something which cannot be seen or measured which men call success, determination, "the never die spirit" that will not brook defeat, and which leads horses to give the last ounce of strength that is in them. This spirit which makes winners in men or in horses is something that horsemen are seeking to develop in their own horses by breeding from the strains that have been proved, in actual tests, to possess courage.

SWEETS AND NUTMEATS

Now that the holiday season is not far off our thoughts turn to candies and sweets reminds Miss Mary Vogle, County Home Economics worker.

Candy as a regular habit is not to be recommended—but candy for special occasions like Thanksgiving and Christmas is different.

"Sweets and Nutmeats" is a new leaflet published by the Agricultural Extension Service of the Pennsylvania State College. This publication contains recipes for fruit and sugar candies. Information on spiced nuts is also avilable. Other helpful hints in candy making are to be found in this publication.

One interesting section of the bulletin deals with candies especially for children. The recipes in this section have been chosen because they are healthful sweets for children and can be made at home.

A copy of the bulletin can be secured by calling at the Agricultural Extension Association Office, 206 Post Office Bldg., New Castle, Pa.

CHOOSE SLIPS CAREFULLY WHETHER SILK OR COTTON

A slip is an undergarment that no well-dressed woman can do without.

To buy a slip that will give satisfaction is not a difficult task if one will take the time to examine the garment carefully, and if possible, try it on before purchasing.

A slip should be styled to suit the figure, says Miss Mary Vogle, home economics representative of Lawrence county. Try it on. Does it fit smoothly or does it bulge at the waist? Does it hang evenly? Is the skirt wide enough to bot walk and sit in comfortably? Is it the correct length or can the length be easily adjusted? Does it fit smoothly across the bust and snugly under the arms?

Is the slip cut accurately? If the garment is not cut on either the true straight thread or true bias thread, it will always hang unevenly and tend to sag from under the skirt.

Are the seams flat, secure, and pliable? Seams stitched firmly with small, even, lock stitches are stronger than those with long chain stitches. All edges should have smooth, firm finishes.

Tailored slips with shadow panels or hems and double yokes at the top will prove to be both practical and serviceable. Lace trims are pretty, but usually show signs of wear long before the slip itself does.

Fabrics for slips may vary according to the buyer's needs. Some women prefer sturdy cotton slips for housework. Others use silk or rayon slips for all occasions. In any case, the fabric should be thoroughly shrunk, have a smooth, firm, and even weave, and have little or no weighting or sizing.

Miss Vogle suggests when buying slips to look for labels. A good label should contain fiber identification and indication of weighting. The meaning of these terms and other points in labels will be considered in a following article. Many labels also give directions for laundering. If such information is present, be sure to make use of it.

ALDERMAN WANTS COLLEGE DIPLOMA

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH—Third ward alderman Daniel A. Verona, 23, has offered what is probably the most unique campaign appeal in history—election as a full-term alderman so he can work his way through college.

Young Verona is now serving the unexpired term of his father, the late John J. Verona, long a powerful political figure in the district.

Verona said:

"I am working my way through college as an alderman. I hope that through this office I may become a better lawyer and as a lawyer become a better alderman."

OHIO MAN HAS BEEN BLACKSMITH FOR 76 YEARS

(International News Service)

RICHWOOD, O.—The sound of the ringing anvil has been music to Nathan W. Spratt, 87, for 76 years.

When he was 12 years old Spratt began to work in his father's blacksmith shop and through the long years has remained in the same location.

Claiming a world's championship for continued "production" Spratt has bolstered his slipping business by repairing farm machinery.

Muscular and lean from his many hours of physical labor Spratt has remained mentally alert and in step with the changing times.

SHE SUSPECTS

A distinguished visitor at an insane asylum went to the telephone and found difficulty in getting his connection. Exasperated, he shouted to the operator:

"Look, here girl, do you know who I am?"

"No," was the calm reply, "but I know where you are."

WORKMEN UNEARTH HISTORIC MILLSTONES

SACRAMENTO, Cal.—Believed to have originally come from France, four old millstones have been unearthed by the state division of highways.

Once integral parts of a crude powder mill erected at the historic town of Towle, way back in 1888, the millstones were first used by the town's founders, the Towle brothers, in operation of a pulp mill.

Believing the production of sawdust powder suitable for the manufacture of blasting powder and dynamite, a more profitable business, the brothers built a powder mill later and used the millstones in its operation for nearly a score of years.

State Potato Crop Has Quality

Crop As Whole Is Of Better Grade Than Usual

LIGHT CROP IN LOCAL DISTRICT

HARRISBURG, Nov. 19.—Following a state-wide inspection by State Department of Agriculture agents, J. Hansell French, secretary of agriculture, announced today that the state's 1927 potato crop is of unusually good quality.

Due to favorable digging and storing conditions the crop is of good market size, smooth, clean and brighter than usual and shows less insect and disease injury than in previous years.

L. T. Denniston, promotional director of the state's potato marketing program, said today that many of the 12,000 Pennsylvania commercial growers have adopted modern production methods and are rapidly adopting modern methods of grading, packing and merchandising.

The trade is interested in securing potatoes of a uniform grade and pack. The trade marked pack giving the true contents and grade find a ready market.

While the production west and north of the Allegheny mountains is lighter than in previous years, the quality of the crop is good. The fine crop in the southeast area is above average in both yield and quality and makes up for the deficiency in the western counties.

BLINKER BULBS LEGAL IN STATE

HARRISBURG, Nov. 19.—Blinker bulbs are now legal for use in all automobile lamps such as stop lights and directional signals, Secretary of Revenue J. Griffith Boardman advised the 8,000 Pennsylvania official motor vehicle inspection stations today.

This ruling is one of a number effecting the semi-annual compulsory motor vehicle inspection campaign which began November 1 and will continue until January 31. During this period all motor vehicles must be submitted to an inspection of their safety factors.

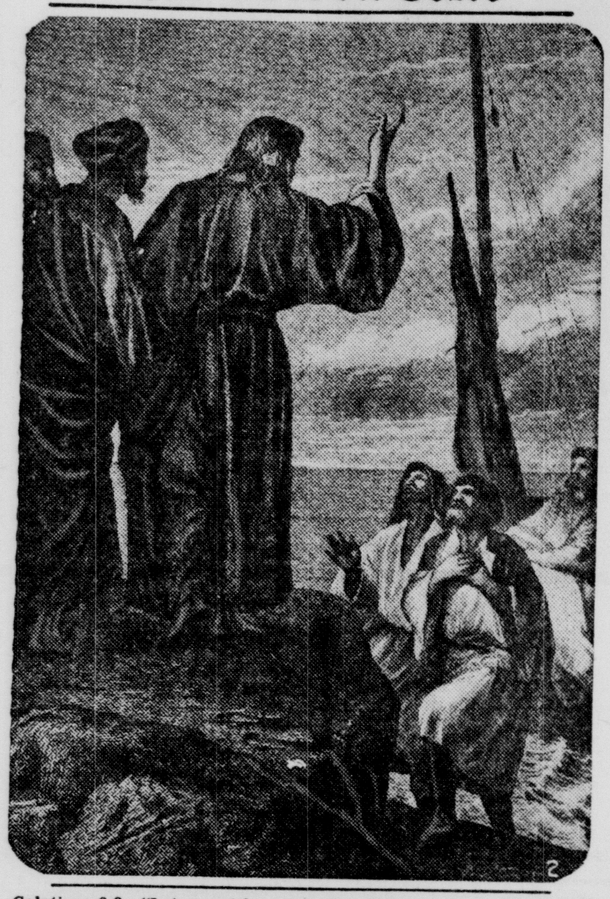
CHRISTIAN WORKERS

"Brass Tacks" On The Sunday School Lesson

The Golden Text



Galatians 6:9—"Let us not be weary in well-doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not."

By DR. ALVIN E. BELL

(The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for Nov. 21 is Acts 6:1-10; 1 Cor. 3:10-15; Gal. 6:6-10; 1 Tim. 6:11-21, especiall 1 Cor. 3:10-15; Gal. 6:6-10, the Golden Text being Gal. 6:9, "Let us not be weary in well-doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.")

Few men in their life time have accomplished more work than the apostle Paul accomplished in the thirty years between his conversion and his death, as preacher, teacher, traveler, organizer and pastor of churches and writer of literature of abiding interest and value. He is a worker at whose feet we all may sit to learn how to become efficient Christian workers.

Distributing The Work

Dwight L. Moody's policy was that it is better to get ten men to work than to try to do ten men's work." And he assured his own immortality by enlisting other workers to carry on his work from generation to generation.

The apostolic church was not long in learning the necessity of distributing the church's work among others than the twelve apostles. There was work that laymen could do as well or better than the already over-burdened apostles: "Now in these days when the number of the disciples was multiplying . . . the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto them, and said, "It is not fit that we should forsake the word of God, and serve tables. Look ye out therefore, brethren, from among you seven men of good report, full of the Spirit and of wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business, but we will continue steadfastly in prayer, and in the ministry of the word." Thus laymen came into their own in the priesthood of believers and made good in the work assigned them, for we read, "The word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied."

All Christian work begins with Christ, the Master-Worker of us all: "Other foundation can no man lay than that, which is laid, which is Jesus Christ." Starting with Christ and building into our own lives and lives of others the things that are in accord with him and his teachings we are building with the unperishable materials Paul likens to "gold, silver, costly stones"; falling here our building is with "wood, hay, stubble", which will not stand the test to which all our work must be subjected.

The Workers' Support

But Christian work and workers must be supported. By whom? By those who believe in and are benefited by the work, not by outsiders who have no sympathy for the work. "Let him that is taught in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things." Not the merchants on Main street who can be cajoled into buying tickets to suppers and bazaars, but the people who want the preaching and teaching for themselves and their children, they should support the work and the workers. By their offerings they "sow unto the Spirit, and of the Spirit reap everlasting life." "So then, as we have opportunity, let us work which is good toward all men, and especially toward them that are of the household of faith."

Advice To Workers

Paul's advice to Christian workers is to keep themselves "without spot, without reproach until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ." "Follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness. Fight the good fight of the faith, lay hold on the life eternal." Those who thus bring life into accord with their profession can not fail to be "rich in good works"—the only riches that bring abiding satisfaction.

Start Probe Of Relief Deficit

Governor's Committee Opens Investigation Into Relief System In State

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Nov. 19.—Governor George H. Earle's three-member relief survey committee today invited the citizenry of the commonwealth to present information they have which might be of value in the investigation of the policies of Karl De Schweinitz, secretary of public assistance.

Marking the initial step in the probe to determine whether federal retrenchment is solely to blame for the $26,000,000 relief deficit facing Pennsylvania, the committee today sent out questionnaires to all employes of the assistance department to determine their qualifications.

The committee, comprised of Donald Livingston, chairman, a public utility commissioner; Harry Margolis, deputy auditor general, and William Sponsler, assistant budget director, met yesterday with De Schweinitz and obtained his promise of cooperation.

According to plans, the committee will send a corps of 10 or more accountants into other states, where assistance situations compare with Pennsylvania's, to investigate relief costs, particularly the cost of administration per person on relief.

At the same time, forty trained investigators will begin "spot-checking" the work of the employes of the assistance department in the various counties. Livingston said the committee planned to investigate "about five per cent" of 13,000 of the commonwealth's 262,000 assistance recipients.

Fagan Will Head New Union Council

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 19.—Patrick T. Fagan, district president of the United Mine Workers, today was assured the presidency of the recently formed steel city industrial union council, a central body for 157 Allegheny county unions connected with the CIO which were recently expelled by the A. F. of L. controlled central labor union. Fagan was nominated without opposition at a meeting of 200 delegates last night.

Weather Halts W. P. A. Projects

Most of the outdoor projects of the Works Progress Administration are down today, due to inclement weather, according to Walter N. Todd, manager of the local office.

Such work as the blacktopping of the airport at Parkstown Corners, paving of streets and other projects that require dry weather are completely down. Others such as quarry projects are operating in part.

The things that give people nice manners are home training, environment and a stock market collapse.

Harbor Church Will Have Thank-Offering

Special Thank-Offering Service Is Planned For Sunday At Harbor U. P.

Tonight at 7:30 the City Mission workers again go to New Bedford Methodist church for a musical program in the interest of the City Rescue Mission's Thanksgiving dinner. Special singers will accompany Superintendent Archie Gibson for this program.

Elks Golden Jubilee Ball

Concluding the Golden Jubilee of New Castle B. P. O. E. No. 69 on Thursday was the grand ball, at the Elks home in the evening. It was a notable social success. The picture was taken during the progress of the evening's program.

Devotion Ends At St. Vitus Church

Forty-Hour Devotion Closes Thursday Evening; Capacity Crowd Present

Impressive services marked the close of the annual forty-hour devotion in St. Vitus church, corner of Maitland and South Jefferson streets, Thursday evening. A capacity crowd was in attendance.

Officiating were the Rev. Fr. A. Capitan, of St. Michael's church, who was celebrant; the Rev. Fr. V. V. Stancelewski, of St. Philip and James church, was deacon, and the Rev. Fr. William Galvin, of St. Mary's church, was sub-deacon. The Rev. Fr. Vincent Galliano, of Ellwood City, was chorister. The Rev. Fr. Elias Nader, of St. John's the Baptist, Syrian Marounit church; the Rev. Fr. Nicholas DeMita, pastor of St. Vitus, and the Rev. Fr. S. F. Anuskiewicz, assistant pastor of St. Vitus, assisted in the services.

Two inspiring sermons were delivered during the course of the evening, one in English by the Rev. Fr. Leo Watterson, of St. Mary's church, and one in Italian by the Rev. Fr. Nunzio Pirullo, of St. Lawrence church, Hillsville.

The devotion closed with an impressive procession. About 60 youngsters, neatly attired in white, altar boys and priests participated. For the occasion, the altar was filled with a profusion of chrysanthemums arranged by sisters of St. Vitus church.

Community Chest Board Will Meet

Members of the board of directors of the New Castle Community Chest will gather for a regular meeting in the Chest office, 37 North Mercer street, on Monday evening, November 22 at 7:30 o'clock, Secretary Frank A. Hover announced today. A. L. Bintz Jr., is president of the board.

Jr. C. Of C. Plans Dinner On Monday

A dinner meeting will be enjoyed by members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce on Monday evening, November 22, President Presley N. Jones announced today. A program is being arranged.

State Prepares To Observe Constitution Ratification Anniversary In December

(Special To The News)

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 19.—One hundred and fifty years ago Sunday, November 21, Pennsylvania's special convention which ratified the Constitution of the United States opened its sessions in the old State House, Philadelphia. The meeting and its action were of momentous significance in the history of the state and nation.

Pennsylvania was the first of the large states to accept the Constitution of the United States, and her prompt action had a powerful influence in effecting its subsequent general ratification 150 years ago.

Unanimous approval of the new charter by citizens of the Commonwealth, however, was not achieved without a violent contest between factions representing two schools of thought. Today by contrast Pennsylvanians in all sections of the state are planning to celebrate the 150th anniversary of Ratification Day on December 12, under the leadership of the Pennsylvania Constitution Commemoration Committee, of which Albert M. Greenfield is chairman.

In the early Fall of 1787 while the Constitutional Convention was putting the finishing touches on the United States Constitution at the State House in Philadelphia the Legislature of Pennsylvania had been meeting in an upper room of the same building. As a consequence of such close proximity no sooner had the "founding Fathers" adjourned on September 18, 1787 than a copy o fthe immortal document was in the hands of the Pennsylvania legislators for their inspection.

Copies of the Constitution were then passed on to the press and the next day the people of Philadelphia were reading about the new plan of government in the "Packet," the "Journal," and the "Gazeteer." The immediate reaction to the proposed charter split the community into two hostile camps. There were the Federalists who favored a strongly centralized government based on the Constitution; and the Anti-Federalists who feared the Constitution would rob the states of their sovereign rights if it became the nation's fundamental and supreme law. Bitter denunciation of the plan and the men who devised it was met by an equally able and stubborn defense. Meanwhile the Continental Congress meeting in New York had looked the Constitution over, and then ordered it resubmitted to the states for their final ratification at special conventions. A resolution to this effect was dispatched by rider to Philadelphia. Arrival of the horseman in the city found the Pennsylvania Legislature already acting upon a motion of George Clymer that a State convention of "deputies" be called to meet in Philadelphia. November 6 was selected for the election of delegates by popular ballot.

This unprecedented speed in acting upon such a momentuous question was an indication of the strength and boldness of the Federalist friends of the Constitution in Pennsylvania, and forecast what the result was to be when the votes were counted in the special convention.

LIKED COCOLATE MILK

(International News Service)

EVANSVILLE, Ind.—City Clerk Gus Ellerbush was mystified when the milk company kept charging him for chocolate milk which he never received.

But police learned that a 14-year-old boy had been slipping around to the Ellerbush home late at night and leaving the notes for chocolate milk, which he retrieved early in the morning before the family was awake.

Eleanor Powell Denies Romance

Hollywood Thinks Eleanor And Wayne Morris Have "Alteritis"

By HARRISON CARROLL

(Copyright, 1937)

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 19.—All Hollywood thought, it was serious this time, but Eleanor Powell said today that her reported romance with Wayne Morris is just like the others—mainly talk.

The tap-dancing star, who has been rumored engaged to Abe Lyman, the orchestra leader; James Stewart, fellow player on the M. G. M. lot and to a South American millionaire, informed your reporter that she is still fancy free.

Plans Vacation

"Sure I've been seeing something of Wayne Morris," she declared. "He's a nice boy . . . but that's what he is, practically a boy. He is too young to be getting serious and, as for me, I'm too busy."

Since January first, Eleanor added, she's had only 17 days off, and that's the way it has been almost all her life.

According to the star, there are a lot of things she intends to do before getting married. For instance, she has never seen a tennis tournament nor a polo game. She has never been up in an airplane and she has never been on a boat.

In fact, the holiday M. G. M. has promised her after she finishes "Rosalie" is the first real vacation she ever had.

Lower Paid Employes Not On Pension List

City police and firemen received pensions but the lower paid employes of the city do not, it developed in council this morning when Mayor Charles E. McGrath said there were 116 such employes who, under three plans submitted by an insurance company, may secure pensions with the aid of the city. It would be arranged through group insurance, it was stated. Council did not discuss the matter and it was not made a record at the formal meeting held this morning in city hall.

SEVENTH WARD NEWS

Hints For Fast Mail Delivery In Ward Given

Residents Of Ward Should Have Mail Addressed To Mahoningtown Station

In the window of the Mahoningtown branch post office on Liberty street is a sign with the following message, "Shop Now, Mail Early for Christmas".

With the Christmas mail rush not far away, Superintendent Edwin McBride, in charge of the Mahoningtown station, offers a few suggestions to persons living in the ward that will greatly speed up the delivery of their mail.

Many persons are not aware that if their letters are addressed to their street address in Mahoningtown, Pa., that they will receive quicker service than if they are addressed to the street address in New Castle, Pa.

For an example of this Superintendent McBride states that a letter addressed to Mr. So and So on Ashland avenue, Mahoningtown, Pa., will be taken from the train directly to the Mahoningtown station and dispatched to the address. If the same letter is addressed to Mr. So and So. on Ashland avenue, New Castle, Pa., this letter will be taken to the uptown station and then sent down to the Mahoningtown station for delivery.

Mrs. W. P. McGrath Entertains Ladies Of O.R.C. Auxiliary

Mrs. W. P. McGrath, of North Cedar street, was hostess to the Ladies' Auxiliary, Order of Railroad Conductors, at a social meeting in her home Thursday afternoon.

In serving a delicious lunch she was assisted by her daughter, Miss Virginia McGrath and Mrs. C. J. Sinkule.

The next meeting of the organization will be on December 2.

MISSIONARY GROUP HAS DINNER-MEET

Thursday evening at five o'clock, members of the Women's Missionary society of the Madison Avenue Christian church held a tureen dinner and regular meeting in the church.

Nearly 150 persons were served by the society, and the dinner tables were attractively decorated with fall flowers. Mrs. Blaine Bumbaugh and Mrs. Walter W. Waid headed the society committees and their aides handled the banquet very successfully.

Following the dinner, a short business meeting of the society was conducted and plans made for future activities.

Young People Of Ward Church Are In Rally Program

"Christian Youth In Conquest" Is Title Of Play Given Thursday Night

The title of the play was Christian Youth In Conquest, and the following took part: Rev. Milton Shearer, Robert Park, Walter Evans, Steve Hutnick, Grace Kelley, Anna Evans, Dorothy Hackitt, Betty Walters, Myrtice Jones, Delphine Jones, Doris Bevan, Lillas Wagner and Thelma Bumbaugh.

This play will again be presented on Sunday evening at the regular service at the Madison Avenue Christian church, beginning at 7:45 o'clock. As this play attracted great comment from the first presentation the public has been invited to view it on Sunday evening.

New Sign Is Over Library Door In Ward

An attractive new sign is hanging over the entrance of the new Seventh ward library on Madison avenue. The sign is illuminated and is readily seen from Liberty street and surrounding district at night.

This new building was dedicated on Wednesday evening of this week. It is open for ward patrons on both Monday and Thursday of each week.

SEVENTH WARD PERSONALS

Mrs. J. O. Dickson, of R. D. 8, visited in Youngstown, with relatives recently.

Mrs. T. N. Hockman, of Madison avenue, is visiting with relatives in Paw Paw, Va.

Mrs. Elizabeth Walters, of Warren, O., is visiting with relatives in the Seventh ward.

Mrs. Elizabeth Maeurman, of Clayton street, visited recently in Youngstown, with friends.

Mrs. Charles Dungan, Sr., of Newell avenue, spent Wednesday in Youngstown, with friends.

Al Thomas, of Rochester, Pa., has returned to his home following a visit in the ward with relatives.

Jean Humphrey, of Clayton street, has returned to her home following a visit with relatives in Liberty, Pa.

Samuel Rainey, of Darlington avenue, is showing improvement after a slight illness of earlier this week.

Mrs. J. Lawson, of Cherry street, is now able to be around after being confined to her home because of illness.

Mrs. Carman Perrino, of Wayne street, is now able to be around, having been confined to her home for some time due to illness.

Frank Calvert, of 205 Newell avenue, was reported to be getting along as well as could be expected this morning in the New Castle hospital where he underwent an operation Thursday.

Rev. and Mrs. C. H. Hagadorn and family, of Newell avenue, expect to remain in Fredonia, N. Y. for at least two more weeks, it was learned today from a communication received by a member of the Mahoning Methodist church congregation.

Local Trombone Player Enlists In Army Band

Albert J. Varley of 7 South Jefferson street, enlisted through the local army recruiting station for service with the United States army.

According to Corporal George Trebesh, officer-in-charge of the local station, Varley was given a specialist rating at Fort Howard, Md., in the 12th infantry band.

Varley is well known in musical circles in New Castle, he having been a member of the local senior high school band, and a member of the American Legion Junior band for the past four years.

Trading In Stock Market Moderate

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—The stock market went down today in its third successive decline. Trading was moderately active. Large losses were suffered by farm implements. Case Threshing slumped eight points. International Harvester lost over two to a new low for the year. Deere and Oliver Farms fell as much.

Auto shares weakened on labor troubles and sales resistance. Chrysler dropped two points and General Motors over a point.

Libby-Owens slipped into new low ground on news of shutdowns of some of its plants. Owens Glass also broke its year's bottom price.

SACRIFICE

"Get ready to die. I am going to shoot you," whispered the footpad viciously to the man he had stopped on a deserted sreet.

"But why?" protested the victim weakly.

"I've always said I would shoot any one who looked like me," snarled the desperado.

"Do I look like you?"

"Yes."

"Then shoot!"

MUSICALLY INCLINED?

Maid—The furniture man is here.

Mistress—I'll see him in a minute—tell him to take a chair.

Maid—I did, but he said he would start with the piano and radio.

News Briefs From City Hall

Milk thieves are active here. Several days ago milk was reported stolen from a Kurtz way porch. Last night police received a report milk also had been stolen from a West Grant street porch.

Police received a report last night that a window in the Bigley plumbing shop, South Croton avenue, had been broken, probably by a stone, picked up and hurled by the wheel of a passing auto.

Police sergeants early this morning received many telephone calls from autoists who inquired the condition of hills, owing to the snowfall. Is was possible to descend and ascend hills without ashing.

City Police Officers George Sigler and Carl Wallace collected nickels from parking meters yesterday. The nickels are collected weekly. The receipts from the past week's deposits will be counted today or Saturday.

Officers Thompson and McMullen recovered an auto owned by James Hamilton, R. D. 2, on the north side of the public square last night. It had been reported stolen.

Councilman Joseph D. Alexander stated today that he had been advised by Owen Fox, city forester, that a tree, the butt of which stood in North Beaver street, between Falls and West Grant streets, has been removed. for safety. The city paid damages to an autoist as the result of his car having hit the obstruction. A tree which was similarly located in Highland avenue, north of Wallace avenue, has also been removed.

Green Encourages Blair Republicans

(International News Service)

ALTOONA, Pa., Nov. 19.—Blair county Republicans today were cheered by a prophecy of victory in next year's election made by State Chairman G. Edward Green, principal speaker at a "victory dinner" here.

The recent elections showed, Green said, that "the mysteria was gone and the voters were thinking once more." This year, he predicted, will go down as the year of "the great repudiation."

"The pendulum has started swinging back," Green said. "Next year it will sweep out of office the Democrats who have distinguished themselves by subsidized hunger marches, gravel scandals, petty sales taxes, Democratic rippers and the highest taxes in Pennsylvania's history."

Doctor—Is your insomnia of long-standing?

Recent Father—No; long-walking. Our baby has had the colic for the last three months.

Just see how EASY to make

NO FUSS and bother chilling ingredients. No difficulty cutting shortening into flour. Spry's soft, creamy consistency makes it blend with other ingredients like magic. And your pastry is heavenly—flaky, tender, breaking at the touch of a fork, melting in your mouth. And what filling—honey . . spices . . apples . . blending into one divine flavor! Do make it today.

But don't stop there. Use Spry for all your baking. See if the most expensive shortening ever gave such light, fine-grained, delicious cakes. And they're mixed in half the time. You'll love Spry-fried foods, too. Crisp, golden, delicate, so digestible a child can eat them. Spry stays fresh indefinitely on the kitchen shelf. No need to keep in refrigerator.

HOME-MAKING EXPERTS FOR 281 NEWSPAPERS SAY: "CREAMIEST SHORTENING I EVER USED"

In 3-lb. and 1-lb. cans

Spry

TRIPLE-CREAMED!

HONEY 'N APPLE ROLL

With marvelous flavor and aroma

2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1 teaspoon salt
¾ cup Spry
3 tablespoons cold milk (about)
1 tablespoon butter
3 large tart apples, thinly sliced
½ cup sugar
1 teaspoon cinnamon
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
⅛ teaspoon salt
½ cup honey
1 tablespoon lemon juice

Sift flour and salt together. Add ½ of Spry to flour. Cut in Spry until mixture is as fine as meal. Easy as can be with triple-creamed Spry! Add remaining Spry and continue cutting until particles are size of a navy bean. No need to chill ingredients, yet Spry pastry is the most flaky and tender you ever tasted! Sprinkle milk, 1 tablespoon at a time, over mixture. With a fork, work lightly together until a dough is formed.

Roll dough into a rectangle about 10 x 12 inches and ¼-inch thick. Spread with butter, then with sliced apples. Mix sugar, spices and salt. Sprinkle over apples. Mix honey and lemon juice and pour over apples. Roll like jelly roll and seal edge of dough. Place in 12 x 7½ x 2-inch baking dish greased with Spry. Prick roll with fork. Bake in hot oven (425° F.) 30 to 40 minutes. And remember, only Spry can give you such wonderfully tender, flaky pastry as this! Serve warm. Serves 8.

(All measurements in this recipe are level.)

New Industry Is Getting Start Here

Another industrial babe has been born here and according to reports, the babe is doing quite well, thank you. In fact, doing so well that orders have been received for products from all parts of the United States. The new industry is the A. Fricker Manufacturing company, makers of Verti-clips, razor-blade knives, Clips and also Razor-blade scrapers. The manufacturers are Clarence Kimmel and A. C. Foringer. They own the patents on all the articles.

The plant is housed in a structure to the rear of the Kimmel residence and at times, Kimmel and his two sons' services are required. The plant is situated about two miles from the city line on the road leading from New Castle to East Brook. The inside of the building is stocked with raw and finished products. The local plant was started in August, after the patents and machinery had been secured. If required, the plant is capable of producing 3,000 clips or clasps in one day.

The clips are made in three sizes, 6½ inches, 5½ inches and 3½ inches, may be used to hold any kind of paper material, after the clip has been inserted in a base, which also is manufacured at the plant. For instance the small size may hold ordinary papers or letters, the next size, heavier material such as a menu card and the like or heavier, and the 6½ inches size much heavier paper material.

The clips are properly tempered and can be purchased nickel-plated or Jappaned. They are made from blue steel or clock-like spring steel. This material is cut into the size desired, after which it goes through such processes as tempering, bending and given the necessary spring (grip) to hold tight any paper inserted. Costly presses and dyes are required for the work and it might be explained that the temper and strength of the spring created are qualities that make them a favorite article for business and household purposes. In fact, they manufacture one clip which is much used in clothing stores for holding fur and other heavy coats.

The employes are required to make several operations for a clip and also for the base, in which they are seated. The base is also of blue steel, yet when completed, is light in weight. The base is heavy enough to keep the clips standing upright. In fact, for cards such as are displayed in restaurants, windows, show cases, mail and book papers they are ideal.

To make the razor-blade knives, also from the best grade of steel, actually a combination knife, scraper and cigar-cutter, thirteen operations are required. Shipments of this article, like the clips, have been to some of the larger stores in different cities of the nation. The razor-blade scraper is an article that may be used for varied purposes, not only in business but in the private home.

Some of the dyes cost as much as $700, and the presses and other machinery, reach thousands. All were secured from Anthony Fricker, inventor and manufacturer of near Slippery Rock, last summer. The new owners, Kimmel and Foringer, took over the machinery after they had acquired the patents for these and 26 other articles. Mr. Fricker, it will be recalled, was the inventor of the bobby pin, which has proven one of the most useful articles that women has yet found.

When a reporter called at the plant the presses were busy pressing out the verti-clips, or all-in-one clasp.

Quite a few orders have been received and it is believed that as time passes the new industrial babe of this district will grow in size. Its health is quite good now due to the fact that the articles manufactured have an every-day use, are durable and neat in appearance.

Gracie Fields, leading British actress, was paid $750,000 in 1936, a figure far exceeding Mae West's $480,000—top salary among film players in the United States.

Magda Fontanges Cannot Come In Department Says

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.—The expulsion of Magda Montanges, French writer who shot Count De Chambrun because he allegedly broke up her affair with Premier Mussolini, was ordered Thursday by the labor department.

The department upheld the action of a board at Ellis Island in refusing the woman entrance to the United States. She is now at Ellis Island and will be deported on the earliest French vessel, unless she seeks to further prolong the case by an appeal to the courts.

Exclusion of the woman was based entirely upon her assault on De Chambrun "with a dangerous weapon".

Start Addition At State Hospital

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Nov. 19.—Groundbreaking exercises for new addition to Torrance state hospital and a cornerstone laying ceremony for a new surgical unit at the state tuberculosis sanitorium at Hamburg, drew state officials from Harrisburg today.

The Torrance improvements, expected to cost $1,640,641, will provide modern, fireproof accommodations for 512 additional patients, Secretary of Welfare Arthur W. Howe, Jr., announced.

Torrance state hospital, located in Westmoreland county, was one of the first state institutions inspected by the governor last year and found antiquated for modern demands. Its improvement is being carried out with funds obtained through the general state authority.

A 22-year-old girl of Akron, O., Julia Ann Leathers, is a gas well operator now drilling her third well. She "doesn't expect to become wealthy," however, she states.

Argue Matter Of Reward Money In Lindbergh Case

Gas Station Attendant And Owner At Loggerheads Over $25,000 Reward

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—The never-will-end Lindbergh kidnaping case provided a new sensation today in a bitter squabble over the $25,000 reward offered for information which led the investigation to Bruno Richard Hauptmann.

With the statement that "I got a raw deal," Jon J. Lyons, the gas station attendant who posed so happily for pictures with Valter Lyle, his boss and reward claimant three years ago, bobbed up to announce that it was he, not Lyle who should be credited with the Hauptmann tip.

Traced By License

A $10 gold certificate with which he purchased gasoline at the station where Lyle and Lyons worked eventually led to the arrest of Hauptmann.

He was traced through his automobile registration written on the bill of Lyle.

But today, Lyons claimed that Lyle had forgotten to take Hauptmann's registration, that it was he who ran to the doorway and called back the numbers to Lyle as the car drove away.

Lyle and Lyons who once agreed to split the reward, aren't friends any more. In fact they fell out so definitely that their company sent Lyle to New Jersey.

LEAVES ELLWOOD SURVIVORS

In the Methodist church at Jackson Center this afternoon funeral services are being conducted for Samuel A. Bestwick, 56, who dropped dead suddenly this week while talking to several friends.

Surviving are his wife, two sons, Walter and Charles L., of R. D. 4, Grove City; a granddaughter, three sisters, Mrs. G. G. Conway and Mrs. Charles Ertel, both of Ellwood City, and Mrs. H. K. McElrath, Jackson Center; two brothers, Walter E., of Jackson township, and Hudson, of Ellwood City.

Week Of Services Opening On Sunday At Westfield Church

Rev. A. E. Driggers of Rochester, Pa., Will Be Guest Minister

The Westfield Presbyterian church is planning for a week of evangelistic services beginning Sunday morning, November 21, and continuing through the evening of November 26.

The Rev. A. E. Driggers, newly installed pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Rochester, Pa., will be the guest minister. He has had a rich background and experience in this type of work.

His sermon topics will be as follows:

Sunday morning—Our Responsibility.

Monday evening—At the Feet of Jesus.

Tuesday evening—The Multiplying Power of God.

Thursday evening—The Plan of Salvation Pictured.

Friday evening—Secret Discipleship.

The Sunday morning service will begin promptly at 11 o'clock; Sabbath school will follow the preaching service. The evening services will begin at 8 o'clock.

Rev. E. A. Shoemaker will preach in the First Presbyterian church of Rochester Sunday morning.

'Glorious Adventure' Is Getting Results

Adventure In Faith, Led By Former Local Boy, Pays In Spiritual Dividends

That "Glorious Adventure in Faith" begun a little more than two weeks ago by the Christ United Lutheran Church of Detroit, under the leadership of Pastor Carl A. Miller, formerly of New Castle, is producing results.

Members set out on a two-month "spiritual adventure" to try to raise funds to pay the outstanding indebtedness of the church to the last penny.

And their faith is producing results. Not so much in money, (the returns in that direction have been more or less negligible so far,) but in drawing people closer to God.

"This isn't a financial campaign. It is a spiritual adventure," Rev. Miller says. "Who cares about saving a church building? The whole thing is to draw people close to God. It is an adventure of faith and prayer, and it is producing results."

The results he speaks of are—letters. Here is one he received on a small ruled piece of paper from a Lawrence county man:

"I read your piece in New Castle News. I am sending you one dollar. I am a poor man. They have sold my home. And I have 2½ acres and they are talking of selling that. I am 72, my wife 70. We will have no place to go. I have prayed and prayed. Perhaps I have no faith. Will you please pray for us as you have faith. May God help you all."

And here is Rev. Miller's reply:

"Jesus loves us. While we were yet sinners He died for us. Nothing shall separate us from the love of Christ.

"Courage good people. I deeply thank you for your precious gift. I believe your faith will be rewarded, and soon.

"Why you lost your home is something I don't know. I do know that I, in my life, continually spoil God's beautiful plan for me, so I suffer to that extent. Perhaps you hold some grudges or bitterness. If you do, let God take that all away, and things will clear up.

"I think God has given me an idea that may help you a lot. Just you keep praying, and let His love flow through you to everyone about you. I expect to write again soon. Anyway, I find this true, namely, "Commit thy way unto the Lord, trust also in Him, and He will bring it to pass."

County Unions Have Big Rally

Christian Endeavor Enjoys Banquet And Program Here Thursday

A throng of around 160 young people from New Castle and all parts of Lawrence county gathered for a very successful fall assembly Thursday evening in the Central Christian church, corner of Long and Pennsylvania avenues.

They had a banquet together at 6:30 and then an elaborate program, which, although it lasted longer than the law should allow, kept the interest of the crowd every minute and no one had the urge to depart before it was over.

The dining room tables were made to represent different nations and each country had a stunt to contribute to the program. China and Japan went at each other's throats rather viciously when their time came to perform, but someone waved a C. E. flag and it was all over, just like that, and the two countries were united in brotherly love.

A number of musical selections contributed to the program. Adjourning to the auditorium the tone of the proceedings changed from a lighter to a more thoughful note. An inspiring devotional period was conducted. Roll call revealed that the First Congregational young people were again winners of the attendance banner. This time they may keep it permanently.

Conferences were then conducted by Dr. G. S. Bennett, J. Wilson Byers, (western district president,) and Rev. E. A. Shoemaker.

And then, as the closing climax, a group of talented young people from the Madison avenue Christian church presented a splendid drama, "Youth In Conquest," in three acts. It was so appropriate and presented so well that the group is still receiving great praise for their performance today.

McLURE NAMED

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 19—Kenneth M. McClure, of New Castle, Pa., today was re-appointed conciliation commissioner for Lawrence county. A per curiam order was signed by Federal Judge F. P. Schoonmaker.

"America owes me a living", says a radical youth. Why, son? What have you done that obligates the rest of us to earn money for your upkeep?

PRO INDUS HEARS HOMESTEAD TALK

Club Learns Of Westmoreland Project From Director Campbell

Enlightening details of the government's Westmoreland Homestead project were told to members of the Pro Indus club by Paul M. Campbell, the project's director and a Westminster college graduate, last night. The club met in the Y. M. C. A.

In his one-hour talk, Mr. Campbell related the principal features of the government's co-operative homestead plan. He said the Westmoreland project contains 250 homes, each embracing a two-and-a-half acre plot. Another 13 acres, he said, are set aside for the homestead's community functions. A community hall has been erected there and he said a high school is planned for the future.

Attorney James E. Chambers of the club introduced Mr. Campbell. President Russell W. Lennig presided.

The members and guests enjoyed a hamburg fry in the "Y" banquet hall upstairs after the speaking program.

The club meets next for a regular session December 2. There will be no meeting Thanksgiving Day.

Gra-Y Clubs Gather Tonight At Y.M.C.A.

Four of the district schools Gra-Y clubs will meet in the Y. M. C. A. for regular meetings tonight at 7. They are the George Washington Silver Fox club, the Lincoln-Garfield club and the Neshannock township school and Rose avenue school groups.

To Spend Million At Slippery Rock

Huge Program Of Building At Teachers College Is Outlined

SLIPPERY ROCK, Pa., Nov. 19.—Construction work on the new science building, high school, library and president's residence at the State Teachers College here will start before Christmas, it is expected, following discussion of the projects at a meeting of the trustees held in Butler.

To the $843,000 building program, which already has been approved by the General State Authority, probably will be added an additional $362,000 for a new women's dormitory to replace North Hall, which was destroyed by fire last month.

Pending approval of this additional allocation, bids will be opened on December 14 to award contracts for the buildings already approved. Total expenditures here, if this new sum is granted, may reach $1,204,000.

Architects drawings of the new dormitory have been received at the college. It will be constructed along Georgian lines to conform with the style of the other buildings. It will have 250 bedrooms, spacious dining room, music rooms, receptions halls, lounge, and kitchens.

The extra number of rooms will permit men students to be housed in South Hall, the other dormitory.

The temporary dining hall is completed and will be open for students who take their meals at the college next week. Following the fire, meals have been served cafeteria style in the Presbyterian church here.

ASH HILLS

Street department employes today were forced to ash some of the snow-covered hills to prevent motor cars from skidding, it was stated.

Critics of the neutrality act say the attempt to remain neutral got us into the last war. What attempt to be neutral?

Bingham Sails For U. S. Today

(International News Service)

LONDON, Nov. 19—United States ambassador Robert Worth Bingham sailed for home today to obtain medical treatment after recurrence of malarial fever of which he is a sufferer.

Embassy attaches emphasized that Bingham's condition was not serious.

Correct this sentence: "She adores him, but she's dumb," said the gossip, "and he'll never be happy with a woman who isn't his equal intellectually."

"I've Always Wanted to Play the Organ"

From the time you were a child you've dreamed of the thrill of playing the organ. Now, through the magic of the Hammond, your dream can come true.

The Hammond is easy to play. If you have even a little knowledge of the piano keyboard, you can pick up its simple technique. If you prefer, lessons are available in New Castle.

The golden tones of the Hammond Organ are electrically created—no pipes or reeds. Small and graceful as a spinet desk, yet its glorious music equals that of a cathedral organ.

And It Costs No More Than A Good Piano

Editor Of Saturday Evening Post Takes Novel Way Of Catching Up

FIRST NIGHTER STILL ON DECK

By O. O. McINTYRE

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Thoughts while strolling: Something in something or other—A week named for a movie star. Mama boys: Clifton Webb, Maury Paul, Milton Berle and Richard Watts, Jr. Everywhere Japs with cameras. Try kodaking in their country and see what.

O. O. McIntyre

Add talkers through their teeth: Claude Rains and Robert Donat. Grown-up kewpies: Woolworth Donohue and Lisle Bell. Worn-out Broadway phrase: "How do you like that?" Eve Symington, once the only society cafe singer. But now look! Justice Black, alas, alack!

No. 1 girlishlooking grandmother: Mrs. Jay O'Brien. Babe Ruth's nickname for everybody is Butch—even Chief Justice Hughes. Tops in colorful newspapermen: Gene Fowler. And I'll take the Joe Rhines orchestra for a waltz with Shelia Barrett. Lion-heart of the era: Prosecutor Dewey.

New free show: The funny lunchtime milinery at the Colony. For Gelett Burgess's look 11 years younger: Cecil B. DeMille. Two things about the Marx Brothers—you either like or can't bear them. The William Rhinelander Stewarts look like you expect socialites to look.

Stokowski knots a mean muffler, too. And not many fellows can give a silk hat that certain tamp like Cole Porter. Or make their white tie ends flare out just so like Ronald Colman. The book critic Herschel Brickell's name sounds like a triple jump in checkers.

When Wesley W. Stout knew definitely he was to take over the editorship of the Saturday Evening Post, following the retirement of the late George Horace Lorimer, he decided to brush up on his literary background before the actual duties began. He wanted to do a lot of reading and historical research, so he bought a couple of five-foot shelves, sundry biographies and reference works and shipped as a super-cargo on a merchant ship for distant ports. The super-cargo is a sort of purser on a freighter. He has scarcely any work, save when loading and unloading.

Joe Frisco's famous "heater"—the cigar he constantly puffed from the moment he awakened until he went to sleep again—has been abandoned, temporarily at least. After almost a life-time of furious smoking, Frisco was ordered to slow up, and, not able to handle the habit moderately, gave it up altogether. His cigar and puffs of smoke were long a part of his dance routine, but he now uses an imitation cigar and leaves the smoke to imagination.

New York's somewhat mysterious first-nighter, the middle-aged Mrs. Katzenberg, is loyal this season to the rather moribund legitimate theatre. There are not as many opening nights as there used to be, but she does not miss those that carry on. A bright blonde, swathed in ermine, she has occupied first row seats on the aisle at every premiere for years. She has no theatrical alliances, is the wife of a business man and is merely an admirer of the theatre and its illusions. She never exchanges a word with the others in the first night crowd, most of whom know each other intimately. All producers include her on the must lists for those who are mailed seats and promptly return checks. There are not many, for most of the first night crowd comes in free.

The men's bar at the Waldorf has become the uptown meeting place for the tired business man before he goes home for dinner. Just as was the old Waldorf bar on 34th street. But there isn't the camaraderie of the days when the biggities drank old fashioneds or rye straight, swapped Pullman car DeCamerons, perhaps huddled in song and maybe phoned home they were delayed at the office. The New Waldorf crowd indulges a thin sherry, Dubonnet or something else light. Their talk seems cool and glassy. Men bow politely but there's little treating. Instead of interest in the last race at Pimlico, they invariably discuss the political affairs. It is a new generation grown up, lacking the abandon of the old and taut as fiddle strings, as thought wondering just what.

A gentleman from Flemingsburg, Ky., writes of riding northward in a New York sight-seeing bus and of the megaphonist at a certain corner shouting: "On the left is the apartment house home of the columnist O. O. McIntyre." And I have been sitting at the front window trying to look nonchalant practically ever since.

BESSEMER HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Dave Di Lullo, who collapsed from exhaustion after the Lowellville-Bessemer game, is all right now and is in school.

Harold De Arment has not attended school this week because of his ankle which he sprained in the same game.

The annual football banquet will be held on Monday, November 22. An unusual and very interesting program is being planned for the boys.

Several members of the faculty attended the Pitt-Nebraska football game last Saturday in Pittsburgh. They were Messrs. Capezzuti, Nord and Thomas, also Miss Macklin and Miss Leacock.

Mr. Martin will be in charge of the assembly program on Friday. The program will consist largely of numbers pertaining to Thanksgiving.

The Junior class party on November 12 was the best they have ever had. The party began with a grand march; various games were played, then the rest of the evening was spent in dancing to piano music furnished by Irma Pelto. The party ended after refreshments had been served.

The high school auditorium will be the scene of a victory dance to be held on Thanksgiving night in honor of our championship football team. Miss Landman is in charge of the plans for this celebration, with Lois Chaddock acting as the chairman of all the committees. The greater part of the evening will be spent in dancing. Other forms of recreation will also be offered, as ping-pong and card games. An interesting program will be given at the intermission.

On Thursday, November 11, the Bessemer boys completed a perfect season of football with their 12-7 victory over Lowellville. This game was the last one for twelve players who are graduating in the spring. The boys are: Dave Di Lullo, Willard Anderson, Nick Mittica, Joe Gallena, William Shusman, Frank Notaresci, Frank Scocic, Louis Mandich, Leroy Hedberg, Fred Gallo, Melon Germanovich and Thomas Grist.

Man Suicides In Hotel Room

(International News Service)

DETROIT, Nov. 19—William Firth of 6602 Dalzelle street, Springhill, Pittsburgh, Pa., Thursday shot and killed himself in his hotel room here, according to Coroner Miles Ling.

He had arrived in Detroit at 3:40 a. m., apparently by airplane. He left a note saying "I was cleaning the gun. Please notify H. W. Crawford."

Crawford told Coroner Ling that Firth, assistant sales manager of a Pittsburgh coal company, had been in ill health for two years. Coroner Ling returned a verdict of suicide.

ONLY THING LEFT

The man who took great pride in his lawn found, to his dismay, a heavy crop of dandelions. He did his best to uproot and destroy them, but all his efforts were unsuccessful, so he decided to write to the federal department of agriculture to ask some advice.

In his letter he described his woes at great length, told about all the things that he had tried and done, and ended by asking: "What do I do now?"

In due course came this reply: "We suggest you learn to love them."

The minister was contemplating the new baby.

"Well, now that you have seen him, said the fond mother, "who do you think he is like?"

The guest looked at the child for a moment and said: "Well, of course intelligence has not yet dawned in his face, but he is wonderfully like both of you."

Each generation makes everything new. People raved about the "new" realism of "Main Street" yet Ed Howe did the same job with "The Story of a Country Town" in 1882.

POST OFFICE TO NEED 30 EXTRAS DURING HOLIDAYS

Postmaster Sees Rush Like Last Year's; Many Seek Jobs

Christmas season "extras" for the New Castle post office will not be hired for a week or so, Postmaster Richard A. Steen announced today. He said it is useless for applicants to visit him to talk jobs because practically all of the additional men will be employed from the existing eligibility list.

The postmaster said a force "like that of last year's" will be required from December 15 or 20 until after Christmas. Thirty clerks and carriers were hired then.

During the past week the post office has been besieged by a large number of men in search of holiday work.

Christmas On Saturday.

Postmaster Steen, stressing the point that Christmas Day this year falls on Saturday, addressed this early message to the public:

"Above everything else, the post office wants to deliver all holiday mail by the night of December 24. If parcels are not delivered then, the Christmas gifts will be delayed until the following Monday.

"We've special instructions not to work on Saturday, December 25, and the post office does not work Sundays."

He also reminded that New Year's Day falls on Saturday, too.

A charming garden chrysanthemum and one that should be in every garden is the one called Jewel. It is of the pompon type and beautifully formed.

How to Be a "Reg'lar" Fellow—Without Pills

There's a better way to get on the "regular" side than by overstimulating your intestines with cathartics. Give up the vest-pocket cures and eat a natural laxative food—Kellogg's All-Bran.

Instead of abusing your intestines, All-Bran supplies TWO things they need. First, it's a good source of vitamin "B1"—the vitamin that tones up your intestinal tract. Second, All-Bran provides "bulk"—it absorbs water and softens like a sponge. This water-softened mass aids elimination.

Eat this crunchy, toasted cereal with milk or cream and fruits—or in cooking. But however you eat it, use it regularly: eat two tablespoons of All-Bran and drink plenty of water. If you do this every day you can avoid common constipation and cathartics, too! Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek. At every grocer's.

Christmas Seal Work Progressing

The work of the folding and placing of Christmas seals in envelopes to be mailed after Thanksgiving Day, in conjunction with the Anti-Tuberculosis Society, is progressing nicely. Various organizations of the city have been gracious in co-operating with this part of the program, which is conducted in their headquarters, 117½ South Mercer street.

A committee of the Federation Juniors, sponsors, are working on their advanced gifts regarding this particular work, and are meeting with much success.

The mailing of the seals, will take place after Thanksgiving Day, in an agreement with the groups concerned, and not before, as previously announced.

Stole Money To Help Her Sister

(International News Service)

DETROIT, Nov. 19.—A 19-year-old Portsmouth, O., girl who wanted her younger sister to have educational advantages she was denied today was held here on a charge of stealing clothing and $200 from the home in which she was employed as a domestic.

The girl, Edith Newman, was to be arraigned in recorder's court today following her return here from Columbus, O., where she was arrested as she stepped from a motor bus.

"I received a letter from my 16-year-old sister, Geneva, saying she was going to quit high school," Edith said. "I wanted her to stay at school and not have to go to work for a few dollars a week as I have done.

"I didn't have anything decent to wear and I didn't want my folks to know that so I took the clothes and the money."

MOTORISTS PROVE ABILITY TO PAY

HARRISBURG, Nov. 19.—A total of 256 persons filed proof of financial responsibility in order to regain their automobile driving licenses during the month of October, Secretary of Revenue J. Griffith Boardman said today.

An additional 422 persons renewed their proof of ability to respond to damages in order to retain their licenses. During the same period the proof of 122 persons was cancelled and that of 63 persons was relieved.

Proof of financial responsibility in the form of cash, a bond or insurance is required of all persons whose licenses have been suspended or revoked or who have unsatisfied judgments or bad accident records.

WPA PROVES SPUR TO BLIND BEGGARS

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn.—This is a story of nine who were beggars three years ago and who, today, are not.

Not only were these nine persons beggars, but they were blind as well.

Then, under the guidance of Miss Gladys Ridgeway, instructor of the blind under a WPA project here, the nine were taught various arts—chief of which was the making of artificial flowers.

Schools Of State Are Voting Upon Athletic Changes

PIAA Asks 800 Member Schools To Vote Upon Proposed Changes

Would Reduce Player Age To 19, Would Re-Install Spring Training

By DICK SHANER
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, Nov. 19.—The Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic association today asked its 800 member schools whether they wanted spring football practice and whether they would sanction the reduction of the age limit of participants in high school sports.

In the form of four proposed amendments to the by-laws, the questions were mailed to member schools today by P.I.A.A. Secretary P. Edmund Wicht. They were to be voted on in each district at a meeting to be called by the district chairmen. Two of the proposals deal with the age limit and spring practice while the remaining pair concern an eligibility clause and the value of awards to student winners.

Spring Training

Under the present laws, the P.I.A.A. prohibits football practice before one week prior to September 1. The member schools were asked whether they wanted spring training during either three or four consecutive school weeks prior to June 1 or whether they wanted the present ruling to remain in effect. The schools were also asked to designate whether the training period, if approved, would consist of three or four weeks.

A provision in the proposed amendment provides that schools utilizing the spring training period would not be allowed to open fall training until September 1 and that schools not holding the spring practice session would be permitted to commence fall practice on August 20, or four days earlier than now allowed. If the amendment is approved, it will become effective Jan. 1, 1938.

Age Limit 19 Years

In the age reduction proposal, the executive board asked if the age limit could be reduced to 19 instead of the present 20 years of age. The proposal states that "a player may participate in any inter-scholastic contest until he becomes 19 years of age provided, however, that he attains the age of 19 on or after the date set for the beginning of a particular sport season, he may continue to participate until the end of that particular sport season."

At present a player is eligible until the midnight preceding his 20th birthday. The rule, in effect, eliminates half seasons for players who are automatically disqualified by the age limit during the playing season. If approved, the amendment becomes effective Sept. 1, 1938.

The third proposal provides that when a student is a victim of quarantine, he shall have to abide by the 20-day limit which disqualifies any player from participating in a sport for 60 school days if he misses 20 consecutive days of school. If adopted, the amendment becomes effective Feb. 1, 1938.

Awards Limited

The last amendment proposed will, if adopted, repeal a by-law ruling which forbids member schools to present awards of value higher than two dollars to students. It will be effective Jan. 1, 1938, if accepted.

With the amendments was submitted a questionnaire to be answered for the guidance of the board of control in deciding whether or not new regulations as provided in the questions should be submitted as amendments next year. The questions deal with a maximum age limit of participants in sports, limitation of schedules, pre-season training in all sports and lastly the "submitting of an amendment to change the membership dues scale from a flat rate to a per capita basis of pupil enrollment."

Four Thiel Men In Final Game

Thiel-Grove City Game On Saturday Creates Lot Of Mercer County Excitement

(Special To The News)

GREENVILLE, Pa., Nov. 19.—Four Thiel College seniors will carry the colors of blue and gold for the last time Saturday in a fitting finale to any Tomcat football career—the annual Thiel-Grove City game. Always the high-spot of the Lutheran grid season, this year's renewing of the ancient and bitter rivalry has created more than the usual stir of excitement on the Thiel campus—especially among the four seniors, who would be making a final glorious contribution to their school by turning in a victory over their arch rivals from Grove City.

Mike Josephs, from Butler; "Bus" Wilson, Homestead; Don Breckenridge, Greenville, and Jim Gerberding, Minneapolis, are the senior lettermen who will start against the Grovers. One last scrimmage Wednesday, and a week of long drills in which Coach Jack Stoever has stressed blocking and tackling, have put the team in final shape for the climax of a season whose fate still rests on Saturday's game.

Bears Capture 26 Games In 4 Years

Seventh Ward Aggregation Drops Five Battles; Tie In Six Games

One of the most impressive records in the district in Independent circles, has been compiled by the Wabash Bears of Mahoningtown.

In the past four years, the Mahoningtown hog-hiders have captured 26 tussles, dropped 5 and have been deadlocked on 6 occasions. Five former New Castle high gridders are on the lineup. They are: Blackie Adamo, Kaiser, Toscano, Sammy Copple, Tippy Richards and Gabby DeCaprio.

In 1934, the Bears bowled over 8 foes, lost once and tied one. The following year, 7 foes fell by the wayside while only one was able to conquor the powerful local eleven. Two of the games in 35 were deadlock numbers. Last year, the Bears romped off the gridion victorious on 6 occasions, dropped a lone battle and tied twice. So far this season, the Bears have won 5, lost 2 and tied 1.

This coming Sunday, on the E. & A. field, the Bears will lineup in the hope of winning number 27 from the Beaver Falls gridders. Tex Richards, Earl Turk and Pelio Gennock will officiate.

East Side Team Holds Meeting

Officers Elected At Meeting Of Strollers Athletic Club Wednesday

Members of the East Side Strollers Athletic club held a meeting in the home of Hub Riley. At this meeting officers for the coming year were elected with the following results:

President, Bud Riley; vice president, Bill Irwin; secretary, Bob "Sy" Carson, and treasurer, Phillip Crane.

New members admitted to the club at the meeting included Bud Riley, Don Wyman, Suss Brooks, Bud Sheffler, John Mortimer, Jud Smith, Bill Irwin, Fred Quinto, Bob Sage and Walter Ryan.

Ramblers Will Battle Hoods

The Ramblers will play the Hoods football team at 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the Rose avenue field, it was announced today. The Hoods have had a very fine season to date and are to upset the Ramblers.

All of the west side Ramblers are asked to meet at the corner of Grant and Elm streets at 1 o'clock to make the trip to the east side field. The New Castle Ramblers will have such stars as Fee, McKee and Farrell from the George Washington high eleven.

Bears To Close Season Sunday

The Wabash Bears will close their 1937 football season on Sunday by meeting the strong DelMar club of Beaver Falls at the E. & A. field at 3 o'clock. The DelMars have been beaten only once this year and that was by the Koppel Bulldogs 19 to 0.

Tony Domenick, manager of the Bears, looks for the biggest crowd of the year to watch the grid battle. The Bears are the New Castle and Lawrence county independent champions.

Bessemer's 1937 Champion Team

Second row standing—M. McCree, Zornich, M. Germonavich, P. Drahuschak, Grist, Mandich, Gallo, Hedberg, Calderaro, Pelto, Kennedy, Craycraft, Pezzulo.

Facing one of the toughest schedules in the history of the school, the 1937 Bessemer high school football team swept aside all opposition to finish the season undefeated, winning nine games. Bessemer also copped the coveted Lawrence County Class B championship.

Susko Is Playing Final Game For Titan Eleven

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Nov. 19—Westminster's only senior regular, Captain John Susko, ends his intercollegiate gridiron career at Slippery Rock against the big Green and White Thompson-coached eleven, today.

Susko

Susko, coming from Struthers high, played substitute tackle on the Titan squad under the Gilbanes during his freshman year and received his baptism of fire against the Fordham Rams, and Dr. Sutherland's Panters.

Winning varsity awards during his Sophomore and his Junior years, as a regular, Susko developed into a smart, hard-hitting college linemen, and only a series of painful back injuries cut down his efficiency.

This year, as captain, he has been instrumental in producing one of the best elevens to show on Westminsters field in recent years. He will be the only first string player to graduate next June.

Susko, a member of Theta Upsilon Omega fraternity, resides at 98 Wilson street, Struthers, O.

Kenneth Heineman of El Paso, Texas, really puts on a football show. The Texas School of Mines quarterback completed 6 of his 148 forward passes for a net gain of 1,158 yards and a 17-yard average. He carried the ball 94 times and gained 542 yards, an average of 5.8 per attempt. The Miners have won five, tied two and lost one game.

Fritzie Zivic of Pittsburgh went to McKeesport last night but apparently was in a hurry to return home so he flattened Jimmie Reilly of Fairmont, W. Va., in the first round of a bout scheduled to go 10 stanzas. They are welterweights.

STROLLERS CALL PRACTICE SUNDAY

In preparation for the coming Thanksgiving Day game, the East Side Strollers football team has called a practice for Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Centennial field.

Bears' Record Is Impressive

Seventh Ward Gridders Have Won Five Tough Battles So Far This Season

Having topped five tough independent foes during the past season, the Wabash Bears, New Castle champs, will endeavor to add the noted Beaver Falls eleven to their list of triumphs next Sunday afternoon on the E. and A. grounds, Mahoningtown.

Figures released today show that the Mahoningtown pig-skin catchers have played eight tussles, winning five, losing two and deadlocking one. Sunday's game promises to be one of the most exciting of the season.

Figures also show that the Fannins of the South Side are in second place with four wins, two defeats and two ties.

The standing of the teams; both in the city and county:

Team	W.	L.	T.	Pct.
Wabash Bears	5	2	1	.625
Fannins	4	2	2	.500
Koppel	4	2	1	.571
Frisco	3	3	1	.428
Croton	2	3	0	.400

Since the Bears lead the field in the city, let's peruse the scorebook and find out the point scorers. Kaiser Toscano, one of the sweetest ends in the history of New Castle high, is tops with 22 markers to his name. Adamo, also of New Castle high fame, is second with 14 points while DeCaprio, another Hurricane lad of last season, is next on the list with 12 points. A. Rainey, Blusico, Piccutta, M. Rainey, Boots, S. Russo and Richards have crossed touchdown land once apiece.

Willie Hoppe increased lead over Jake Schaefer of Chicago in defense of 18.1 balkline billiards title in New York 3,000 challenge match.

Game Commission Plans To Yield To Injunction

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Nov. 19.—The State Game commission will not carry its case for an antlerless deer season to the appellate courts, it was announced Thursday by Major Nicholas Biddle, chairman of the commission.

"If the Dauphin county court next Monday decides to grant a permanent injunction, the commission will yield and refrain from carrying this case to a higher court," Biddle declared.

Harry Wilson Is Going To Hawaii

Former Sharon High, Penn State And Army Star Well Known Here

Harry Wilson, former Sharon boy, is going to Hawaii for the next two years as a member of the United States Army Air Corps—to the average football fan that statement doesn't sound very familiar.

To the football fans of New Castle and Sharon around 1918, 1919 and 1920, the name Harry Wilson was on everyone's lips. He was perhaps one of the greatest backfield men that ever donned a Sharon uniform. He later went to Penn State and was a great star and then played for the Army in 1925, 1926, 1927 and 1928.

Wilson played with Sharon high when New Castle and Sharon met in their annual classic at the old Cascade ball park—and that, dear folks, was quite a spell ago.

Antlerless Deer Season Is Upheld

Former Commissioner Says Short Open Doe Season Best Thing For State

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 19.—Sportsmen fighting the open season on doe which has already been halted by a temporary court injunction are "cutting their own throats," in the opinion today of Dr. Samuel H. Williams, a former member of the State Game Commission and a professor of zoology at the University of Pittsburgh.

Urging all sportsmen to oppose the injunction granted by Judge John E. Fox, of Harrisburg, Dr. Williams declared the present deer herd is too large for the feeding ranges in the state and that a disproportionate sex ratio exists. The open season on the doe, he said, was the only hope for "biological security" for big game in the state.

"It is absolutely necessary to re-establish a more nearly balanced sex ratio," Dr. Williams said. "The commission did the generous thing by allowing the sportsmen to have the sport of establishing normal numbers and sex ratios."

Dr. Williams predicted the injunction suit brought by residents of Elk, Cameron and Clinton counties will result in a host of similar suits by other groups against various state commissions.

Harvard given good chance to upset undefeated Yale, with close battle looked for in California-Stanford classic.

Ancient Rivals Clash Saturday On Many Grids

Pitt Vs. Penn State, California And Stanford, Harvard And Yale Among Many

LIKES NOTRE DAME OVER NORTHWESTERN

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Nov. 19.—Quite as it should be with the 1937 season coming up to its climax, the McCoys and the Hatfields of college football are to unpack and dust off their revered and traditional feuds tomorrow with what might be called the glamour games of the gridiron, dating back to the nose guard, the stair-pad pants and the fleur-de-lis watch, with shirtwaist and skirt.

California and Stanford; Harvard and Yale; Pitt and Penn State; Colgate and Syracuse; Lafayette and Lehigh; Indiana and Purdue; Chicago and Illinois and Georgia and Auburn, to name a conspicuous few, are cited as typical, meaning that they've known each other so long they've forgotten what they started out to hate about. Often enough, as far as the rest of the country is concerned, you couldn't give them away in a raffle.

But this time they have something. They have, in many cases, the unbeaten teams of 1937 among the various principals, some of them hanging those spotless records out on the line for the last time. Even the ultimate Rose Bowl principals will be picked from the returns.

California Or Stanford

California, for example, can finish undefeated, with the coast conference championship and the Rose Bowl honor, if it gets by Stanford at Palo Alto. Personilly, I thought Stanford had quite a chance, off its recent record. But people from the coast keep telling me that California can't miss—and I'm not the kind of a mouth organ to try to make California do it. From 3,000 miles away.

As I was saying, I don't have to leave town to guess wrong. Maybe that's why, in considering the eight or more ranking leaders in action tomorrow—Alabama and Colorado aren't—I'm naming Yale as the one undefeated team with the foremost chance of "blowing the ace" as its season ends. And maybe it's because the outfit is playing Harvard. The latter is better than its record; in fact, I think it's better than Yale. If this be folly, make the most of it.

Likes Panthers

Undefeated Pitt should get by Penn State, since the latter has yielded 86 points to opponents this year, for an average of 12 per game. Twelve should be enough for Pitt.

Undefeated Fordham is meeting another kind of a team in St. Mary's, a defensive giant. But if you can't score, you don't win. I'm for undefeated Fordham.

I'm also for undefeated Dartmouth against Columbia, for obvious reasons. In the same way, undefeated and untied Lafayette should score over Lehigh. The former has won all, the latter has won one. With some foreboding—undefeated Holy Cross over Carnegie Tech, because the latter has done a lot of traveling between East Lansing, Pittsburgh and Worcester, Mass., in the course of one week.

Undefeated Villanova figures to round out the day with a win over Temple, the latter having scored only three touchdowns in its last seven games. Villanova's defense have given up just one touchdown all season.

Favors Notre Dame

In the doubtful event that you're still conscious by this time, here's the rest of it:

East—Syracuse over Colgate (it's about time); Boston College over Boston University (the latter's almost worth a flier, at that); Navy over Princeton.

Mid-West: Indiana over Purdue; Illinois over Chicago; Ohio State over Michigan; Notre Dame over Northwestern; Nebraska over Iowa; Minnesota over Wisconsin; Duquesne over Marquette; Arizona over Kansas (that's me, anything for a laugh); Kansas State over Iowa State; Missouri over Washington U.; Oklahoma Aggies over Oklahoma. (Anyhow, that's my story.)

Far West: Washington over Oregon; Oregon State over Washington State; Southern Methodist over U. C. L. A.; Brigham Young over Montana State; Colorado College over Colorado Aggies.

South: Duke over North Carolina State; Auburn over Georgia (or roll your own); Georgia Tech over Florida; Maryland over Georgetown.

Dance To Honor Football Squad At Westminster

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Nov. 19—Honoring the 1937 Westminster football squad, Sphinx senior men's honorary fraternity, will sponsor a dance, Saturday night, November 20.

A blue canopy-ceiling in the gymnasium, crossed with white lines to resemble a gridiron will be one of the decorative features. The remainder of the gymnasium will be decorated with footballs, football jerseys and blue and white balloons. Dave Henderson, Pittsburgh, is chairman of the decorations committee,assisted by Ken Smith, Aliquippa, and Earl Wright, Bellevue.

During the dance the squad and the coaches, Grover Washabaugh, Dick Kelleher and Dave Boyd, will be introduced from the orchestra.

Face Strong Sharon High Team Here Thanksgiving Day; Visitors Favored

New Castle High school "Red Hurricane" football team went back to work today after resting for four days since the defeat of Midland High that put them out of the Class AA title race.

Sharon High will bring a powerful team here. It has been quite a number of years since Sharon has trimmed a New Castle team, and this year they come to Taggart Field the topheavy favorites to take the Thanksgiving Day victory back to Mercer county.

In Good Shape

The New Castle squad is in good shape for the gruelling schedule that they have come through this year. There are no serious injuries. The "Canes" will probably be at top strength for the Sharon battle.

Tickets for the game are selling fast, indicating that there will be a good crowd on hand for the holiday contest. Head Coach Phil Bridenbaugh would like very much to win this game, the final one of the year, but it looks like too big a task for the boys.

Columbiana Team Coming For Match

New Castle Rifle club had a fine turn-out Monday night for the weekly practice shoot in the Cathedrel range. There were a number of visitors as well as the regular club members present. Hockenberry, the Moores, Houck, Pugh and others turned in their usual high scores.

Results of the practice shoot: Bill Houck, 192; Hockenberry, 191; Dick Pugh, 191; J. Moore, 190; Ruby Moore, 188; McKibben, 187; Waddington, 186; Patterson, 184; Van-Horn, 181; H. Ferver, 180; Jane Davis, 177; Zeigler, 173; Thomas, 168; Doris McMullen, 166. Those who didn't record their scores included Matthews, Chamberlain, Leo hill, Hendershot and Lusk.

Maitland A. C. To Have Strong Team

The Maitland A. C. will have a strong team on the basketball court this year, it was announced today. The team will be bigger and better than ever before.

The Maitlands will try hard for the junior championship, and will probably join a fast junior league here. The team is composed of such well known floor stars as: Harry Frank, F. Natale, H. Isabella, J. Reda, V. Appostolico, T. Ross, G. Filigenzi, T. Toscano and P. Ambrose.

The team plans to use the Lincoln-Garfield gym as their home court. The team is coached by Louis Dec. Any junior quintet wanting games can arrange them by calling or seeing Joe Reda.

Church League Starts Monday

Church Basketball League Will Open Monday Night With Three Games

The New Castle Church basketball league will open the 1937-38 floor season on Monday night at the "Y" floor, it was announced by the league supervisor Henry MacNicholas today. The first game Monday will start at 8 o'clock. Epworth is the defending champs this year.

The schedule for Monday:

First M. E. vs. Tifereth Israel.

First Baptist vs. First Presbyterians.

Epworth M. E. vs. First Christians.

Catholic Eleven To Have Banquet

Coach Domenick "Gabby" DeCaprio will play host Saturday to the members of the Catholic A. C. football team at his home at a fine banquet, it was announced today.

The Catholic A. C. has ended a most successful season with seven wins and one defeat. The lone setback was received at the hands of the Jeff Robins 19 to 14. The leading scorer was Cotton Gennock with 60 points. Second high was Ross with 29 points.

Catholics 14, Russos 0.
Catholics 39, Maitlands 0.
Catholics 6, Keystones 0.
Catholics 7, West Pittsburg 6.
Catholics 14, Jeff Robins 19.
Catholics 19, Ellwood City 6.
Catholics 29, Uber Wildcats 0.
Catholicc 9, Italian A. C. 0.
Totals—Catholics 129, opponents 31.

UNION HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

The juniors are holding a square dance and box social some time in the near future.

The student body enjoyed an assembly program which was in charge of Mr. Young and the Palette club, on Wednesday.

The Boys' Glee club is holding a skating party Monday, November 22. Mr. Rowley is faculty advisor of this club.

We feel that Union has been well represented on the all-star football team. Those boys from Union are: "Ducky" Guinaugh, Jim Fulton, Scott Morrison and Walter Sniezek.

There has been a public address system installed in the auditorium to be used in assembly or in any plays which might be put on.

Mary Busin, formerly a junior of New Castle high school, is now attending school at Union.

Jim Fulton has recovered nicely from the sprained shoulder which he sustained while playing football.

Bob McKinney is going to Irwin to participate in the state chorus which is to be held Friday and Saturday.

Miss Beck, our health and gym teacher, expects to attend the state Physical Education convention in Wilkinsburg, Saturday November 20.

Audrey Bilger has returned to school after being absent three days because of illness.

ENTIRE SUPPLY OF BICYCLES IN BELGIAN TOWN ARE SEIZED

(International News Service)

TERNATH, Belgium—Every bicycle in this little town has been seized by the police—they were all stolen in Brussels.

But it did not come about because of any vigilance on the part of the police.

George Mourote owned the town's largest garage. He also ran a bicycle store on the side. His bicycle business prospered more than his garage.

A competitor became curious. He investigated. He learned that Mourote obtained all of stock of bicycles from Brussels. He also learned that the bicycles were stolen.

Competitor Follows Suit.

But the competitor did not tell the police. Instead he used his business initiative and also found a place in Brussels where he could buy stolen bicycles cheaply. He began to cut in on Mourote's business. Mourote sent an anonymous letter to the police.

The second garage man was arrested. But as he had not yet received his "stock" the police found nothing.

JUST PLAYING SAFE

(International News Service)

RAYMOND, Wash.—One man working at picking ferns in the woods near here took no chances on getting mistaken for a deer, when the Washington hunting season opened. Hunters reported finding him in the woods wearing a red hat—and a cowbell.

WHAT DO YOU MEAN?

Jerry—I'm afraid I'll get confused when I meet your dad.

Jean—Don't worry. He'll help you out.

Local Women Attend Council Luncheon At Slippery Rock

Next Meeting To Be Held In January With Sharpsville Auxiliary Entertaining

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 19.—Nine members of the auxiliary of the J. Wilbur Randolph post of the American Legion attended a luncheon of the four-county council held on Thursday in the First Presbyterian church of Slippery Rock.

Mrs. Rae Beister, past national president, of Philadelphia, was the guest speaker and she gave an especially interesting address on National Defense. Mrs. Arthur Beaver, western vice president, and Mrs. Sally Homer, state president, of Greenville, attended and also spoke on auxiliary objectives.

The annual state membership roll call will be held at Harrisburg on December 14 and this was stressed throughout the meeting.

Included in the local group were: Mrs. S. R. Berstler, the council president; Mrs. Wayne Baird, Mrs. Hugh Holliday, Mrs. Ella Hennon, Mrs. Edward Keeler, Mrs. Ferd Buquo, Mrs. Ralston Zeigler, Mrs. John Luck and Mrs. Walter Simpson.

For the next meeting, the council will meet on the fourth Thursday of January at Sharpsville.

Missionary Group Has Fine Program

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 19.—Thirty-five members of the Women's Missionary society of the First Baptist church assembled in the church parlors on Thursday evening for the November meeting, which featured a splendid program.

"God's Window" was the evening's topic and it was presented in an interesting manner by Mrs. D. J. Jones, as leader.

Group three, captained by Mrs. Landis Roeloff, then presented the following program: Voval solo, Mrs. Bernie Osterhouse; piano solo, Mrs. Halycon Brandon, and a Thanksgiving reading, Miss Nellie Kliendenst.

Miss Cleo Hazen of Pittsburgh was a special guest.

Thursday, December 23, marks the date of the next meeting.

Thirty-Three Take Operator's Test

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 19. — Seventeen persons were made licensed drivers of this state when they took an operator's test to determine their fitness and ability given on Thursday at Ewing Park by members of the state motor police. A total of thirty-three persons took the test with sixteen failures.

Those who failed the examination may take another one at Ewing Park on Thursday, December 9, or Thursday, December 16, providing their time limit has not expired. The examinations are given continuously from 10 to 3 p. m.

The manner of operation was the principal reason given for the rejections.

Mrs. Charles Hall Is Guest Of Club

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 19.—Mrs. John Cole pleasingly entertained members of the Entre Nous club at her home in Hazel avenue on Thursday evening with twelve members participating. Mrs. Charles Hall, of New Brighton, was a special guest.

Bingo provided the evening's diversion with the awards going to Mrs. Joe Miller and for low to Mrs. Edwin Curry. Attractively appointed refreshments were served by the hostess.

For the next meeting on Thursday evening, December 16, a Christmas party was planned to take place at the home of Mrs. Edward Curry of Wampum avenue.

HOSPITAL NOTES

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 19.—Admitted: Mrs. Frank Ripple, Youngstown, and Donald Ruhe, Line avenue.

Reformed Society Selects Officers

Robert Mickley Is Re-elected President By Young Peoples Organization

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 19.—When members of the Young People's society of the Immanuel Reformed church held their November social meeting last evening in the church rooms, an election of officers was the principal feature.

Those selected were: President, Robert Mickley; vice president, Ruth Hockenberyr; recording secretary, Catherine Micklas; treasurer, Harry Shirey; corresponding secretary, Doris Shirey; counselors, Mrs. Forrest Powell and Mrs. Harry Shirey.

Miss Blanche Means conducted a merry social hour and served delicious refreshments at the close of the evening. Plans were made to pack Thanksgiving baskets for needy families.

P. H. Grangers To Elect Officers At Next Meeting

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 19. — Third and fourth degree work given to a class of candidates desiring membership into the organization occupied the attention of the Pleasant Hill grangers assembled last evening at their hall, on the Ellwood-Portersville road, for the last meeting of November.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McCullough and Mr. and Mrs. McCandless, of Big Beaver grange, were special guests.

An amusing hour of various diversions followed with a committee of three, Mrs. Jesse Weingartner, Mrs. Herbert Sturgeon and Mrs. Clair Steffler, serving palatable refreshments.

It was announced that for the meeting on Thursday, December 2, an election of officers would be featured.

Announce Schedule For Junior High Basketball Games

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 19.—Basketball coach, Jerry Newton, and junior high coach, John King, attended a meeting of junior high coaches held Thursday evening at Beaver Falls to prepare a schedule for the schools that will participate in the Junior W. P. I. A. L. games of this district.

About forty boys have reported to Mr. King for tryouts but he is handicapped for a place to practice. At present the boys are practicing at the school each evening from 6 to 7 o'clock.

Pythian Sisters Have Roll Call

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 19. — When members of the Pythian Sisters Lodge held their regular meeting on Thursday evening in the V. F. W. hall, they had their annual roll call with twenty-nine responses.

A nomination of officers was featured during the business meeting with the election to take place at the next meeting on Thursday evening, December 2.

Rock Point Club At Matheny Home

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 19.—Mrs. Joseph Matheny opened her home on the Ellwood-Wampum road on Thursday afternoon to members of the Rock Point club, who gathered for the usual meeting.

After an enjoyable social period the guests were served a nice lunch by Mrs. Violet Chapman and Mrs. Alice Pappas.

The group will not meet next week owing to Thanksgiving but will meet on Thursday, December 2, at the home of Mrs. Violet Chapman of the Wampum road.

Flag Presented To Wurtemburg School By Mrs. Eva Majors

Given In Memory Of Her Brother, William Frye, Spanish War Veteran

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 19.—In memory of the late William Frye of Wurtemburg, whose death occurred recently, his sister, Mrs. Eva Majors of Wurtemburg, presented the Wurtemburg consolidated school with a large, beautiful American flag.

Mr. Frye was a Spanish-American war veteran and the flag was a memorial gift to Mrs. Majors from the local Veterans of Foreign Wars post.

The flag was recently raised at the school with Paul Gibbons, Charles Fox, Tommy Wehman and Merlin Carouthers taking part in the ceremonies.

Mrs. Jack Boyle TMM Club Hostess

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 19.—T. M. M. club members were delightfully entertained on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Jack Boyle of Foch street. Mrs. Inez Stiner and Mrs. Winifred Bell of New Castle, attended.

Bridge at three tables held the attention of the guests with the high score award going to Mrs. Herman Wilson and second high to Mrs. H. A. Wasser.

Mrs. W. E. Bayers aided the hostess in serving a dainty repast.

On Thursday evening, December 2, Mrs. S. P. Peck of Pershing street, will be hostess.

Donald Watson Is Injured In Fall

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 19.—Donald, small son of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Watson of the Wampum road, is confined to his home suffering from injuries received in a fall on Thursday afternoon.

Playing near his home with other children, the child was injured when he fell twenty-five feet from a grapevine swing, striking his head.

IN PITTSBURGH

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 19.—Charles Lambert and son, Robert, of Lawrence avenue, and John Gabler of the Wampum road, were business callers in Pittsburgh on Thursday.

Rev. Schillinger To Preach Tonight At Union Services

Rev. Thomas Berger, Of Slippery Rock, Speaker On Thursday Night

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 19—Combined evangelistic services of the Providence Baptist and Presbyterian churches of North Sewickley have attracted wide interest and attendance for the past two weeks with the services held this week in the latter church.

Rev. Thomas Berger, pastor of the Slippery Rock Presbyterian church, was the speaker last evening using for his theme, "Be Ye Reconciled to God."

One of the outstanding features of each evening has been the song service which was directed last week by S. G. Hazen and this week by J. R. Clarke with many special selections. Last evening, William Jones, of Ellwood City, who sings in the Trinity Cathedral choir, Pittsburgh, accompanied by Miss Routnour sang two selections, "The Lord's Prayer" and "God Shall Wipe Away All Tears." Leonard Schultz, of Knox, also sang two numbers, "Face to Face" and "The City Four Square" accompanied by Mrs. Fred Smith.

This evening Rev. F. R. Schillinger of the Alliance Gospel Tabernacle, will be the guest speaker and the services will be concluded on Sunday evening in the Providence church with Rev. R. E. Bell bringing the final message.

Tonight the song service which begins at 7:45 p. m. will be entirely taken up by special numbers that have been requested throughout the week.

Rotary Members Guests Of Hennons

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 19—The Rotarians with their Anns, sixty-four all told, had their annual dinner meeting with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hennon at the Hennon greenhouses, near Chewton. The sumptuous dinner was served by the ladies' aid society of the Chewton Christian church. In the absence of President H. W. Smith, vice president Harold Burns had the meeting in charge. "Bill" Randolph was introduced as the high school Rotarian for the month. Mr. Wm. Wamper, florist in Pittsburgh, was introduced by Mr. Hennon and gave an interesting talk on the problems of flower culture, telling, for instance how furnace trouble in zero weather caused his company great loss, also how in five minutes all the glass of the roof was broken by a terrific hail storm. He said that the florist business took more coal than the steel business. He showed that it cost much to produce the wonderful flowers which are always on hand in our florist shops. On account of Thanksgiving, there will be no meeting of the Rotary Club next week.

Mrs. E. C. Wright Smart Set Hostess

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 19.—Mrs. E. C. Wright of Beaver graciously entertained members of the Smart Set club at a luncheon on Thursday at the Hostess House.

Thanksgiving appointments were cleverly used in serving the delectable luncheon. Bridge at two tables was enjoyed for several hours with the awards going to Mrs. Boyd Zeigler and Mrs. Carl Zeigler.

On Thursday, December 2, Mrs. Carl Zeigler will be hostess at the same place.

H. H. Boys Club Meets Thursday

In the Victor Emmanuel hall, 15 Home street, Thursday evening, members of the H. H. Boys club assembled for their weekly meeting.

During the usual business session, plans were made for a benefit affair to be held in the near future. Anthony Spinelli spoke briefly. James Tardelli, Frank Retort, and Frank Spinelli were hosts.

The south side club was organized about a year ago and has enjoyed continuous progress. The letters, H. H. stand for "Handy Helpers." The organization is developing into one of the most popular clubs in the south side.

The next meeting will be held on December 2, in the Victor Emmanuel hall.

Toll Bridge To Koppel Closed

State Commission Orders Investigation Of Condition Of Structure

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Nov. 19.—A toll bridge of the Ellwood & Koppel Bridge company located on state highway route No. 04017 between Koppel, Beaver county, and Ellwood City, Lawrence county, was closed to vehicular and pedestrian traffic today by order of the Public Utility Commission.

The commission acted following the receipt of information that the bridge's timber deck is in dangerous and unsafe condition for all kinds of traffic. An investigation to determine the safety of the bridge and the need for replacing the entire timber deck of the structure will be made.

Silvasi Inquest This Afternoon

ELLWOOD CITY, Nov. 19.—This afternoon at 3 o'clock an inquest will be conducted by County Coroner Orville Potter, in the police court room of the city building concerning the death of Frank Silvasi, of Ellport.

Mr. Silvasi died on Monday evening at the Ellwood City hospital from injuries received when he was struck by an automobile on the Ellport highway on Friday evening, November 12.

L. D. Lloyd of Portersville, R. D. 2, is the alleged driver of the car that struck Silvasi.

FROM ME TO YOU

By MESEEALL.

What a beautiful day . . . the ground is white but not for long for the people in the city . . . but what do we care if the mills would only start again, we would like to see everything black . . . the blacker the better and if anyone disagrees then let them speak up.

It has been suggested that the city make a few play grounds for winter's sports . . . ice skating is the thing . . . Cascade Park Lake could be controlled by the city very nicely . . . a skating rink could be made out of Boyles Field . . . the field is the property of the school board but that should make very little difference . . . it would not hurt the field and hundreds would enjoy the exercise . . . it would be safe, no danger of the children falling in the river or lake . . . there are other fields that could be used the same way . . . would someone like to do something about it . . . a live wire committee could do wonders . . . why don't those of you who are interested get together . . . see city council and the school board.

Are you interested in the stage . . . everyone has a little feeling at one time or other that they would like to go on the stage . . . it might last for only one day and again you might never get over it . . . the stage was here before the moving pictures but when pictures came in the stage seemed to go back . . . now the stage is trying to compete with the pictures which according to my way of thinking is very unnecessary . . . the two mediums are as different as opera . . . what the stage does need, however, is leadership . . . if you go back over the years to the successful stage times you will find they had real leaders . . . look at Russia . . . Stanislawsky had the theatre reach a high stage of perfection . . . New Castle has turned out some mighty fine actors and if you don't believe it, just dig back through your files of memory and see what you can find . . . it has been suggested by a few people here that a Little Theatre organization be started . . . how many would be interested? . . . it would be very educational and interesting work . . . let's hear from you.
